Pennsylvania Supreme Court
Three Members Reappointed
to Minor Court Rules Committee

HARRISBURG, April 22, 2005 — The Supreme Court of Pennsylvania today announced the reappointment of three members of the Minor Court Rules Committee.

Philadelphia Municipal Court Judge Robert S. Blasi and Magisterial District Judges M. Kay DuBree of Bucks County and Henry J. Schireson of Montgomery County each was reappointed to three-year terms, beginning April 1, 2005.

The Minor Court Rules Committee examines and evaluates the rules and standards regarding the conduct of magisterial district judges and their offices. It also recommends new rules and amendments to existing rules of civil procedure for magisterial district judges to the Supreme Court.

The committee is comprised of eight members who serve terms of three years: seven appointed and one ex-officio district court administrator representing the Pennsylvania Association of Court Management. Members may serve a maximum of two full terms.
