

Commonwealth Court of Pennsylvania
Rescission of Internal Operating Procedure 202

The following Internal Operating Procedure 202, 210 Pa. Code 6712, as shown below, is rescinded, effective immediately.

§ 67.12. Permission to Appeal; Administrative Litigation Costs.

The president judge shall circulate petitions for permission to appeal an administrative agency's denial of an application for counsel fees and costs, arising from litigation before such agency, for disposition in the same manner as petitions for reargument under § 67.35 (relating to rearguments; petitions for rearguments), except that such petition as to costs shall be granted where four votes of members of the court favor allowing the appeal. Each such petition shall indicate on its face:

- (1) That a final decision on the merits has been made.
- (2) That the petitioner has presented a similar petition to the administrative agency and that the petition has been denied.
