History/Background

Article V, §12 of the Pennsylvania Constitution requires that district justices and judges of the Philadelphia Traffic Court either be members of the bar of the Supreme Court or, before taking office, complete a course and pass an examination in the duties of their respective offices.

It is the responsibility of the Minor Judiciary Education Board (MJEB) to instruct and certify individuals wishing to become district justices, Philadelphia Traffic Court judges or Philadelphia Bail Commissioners. The board approves the curriculum, appoints and evaluates instructors, establishes course content, reviews all tests, and issues certificates to successful program participants.

In addition, the board conducts continuing education for district justices, senior district justices, Philadelphia Traffic Court judges, senior Philadelphia Traffic Court judges, Philadelphia Bail Commissioners and for those individuals who wish to maintain a current certification in one or more of these areas. It also conducts a one-week practicum, or orientation course, for newly elected or appointed district justices.

The board has seven members, who are appointed by the governor with a two-thirds approval by the Senate.

2001 Curriculum

During this past year approved subjects for the four-week certifying course included:

- Criminal Law and Procedure
- Civil Law and Procedure
- Rules of Evidence
- Judicial Ethics
- Motor Vehicle Law
- Arrest/Search and Seizure
- Pennsylvania Drug/Device and Cosmetics Act
- Pennsylvania Crimes Code

Continuing education for the Commonwealth's district justices and Philadelphia Bail Commissioners is mandated by the Judicial Code (42 Pa. C.S., § 3118). This year during the 16 scheduled weeks the following courses made up the 32 required course hours for district justices:

- review and update of civil and criminal procedure
- Motor Vehicle Code
- Pennsylvania Landlord-Tenant Law
- Consumer Protection
- District Justices and the Media
- Being an Effective Manager

The one-week mandatory continuing education course for Philadelphia Bail Commissioners included:

- criminal law review
- Ethics
- National Alliance for the Mentally Ill
- Crime Victims' Compensation
- Courts and the Media

The orientation course for new district justices included:

- Sexual Assault
- Ethics
- District Justice Practices
- National Alliance for the Mentally Ill
- Human Behavior

The Minor Judiciary Education Board approved a continuing education program for Philadelphia Traffic Court judges in compliance with Rule 22. That program included:

- Being an Effective Manager
- Philadelphia Traffic Court and the Media
- Philadelphia Traffic Court Procedures
- Pennsylvania Motor Vehicle Code review and update

The Minor Judiciary Education Board provided continuing education to 649 district justices and senior district justices, continuing legal education credits to 115 attorney district justices; and certification classes to 87 prospective district justices and an additional 18 students who were not certified. The board also certified one prospective Philadelphia Bail Commissioner and two prospective Philadelphia Traffic Court judges.

Other Activities

In addition to conducting educational courses at its facility in Chambersburg, the Minor Judiciary Education Board provided staff assistance to the minor judiciary, court administrators, president judges and related court agencies in answering questions pertaining to the board, the minor courts system and the board's courses of instruction.
