Greene County President Judge to Take Leave of Absence

HARRISBURG — Greene County Court Administration today announced that President Judge Farley Toothman has taken a temporary leave of absence beginning Oct. 5, 2020. The judge anticipates returning to the bench on Oct. 20, 2020.

To maintain continuity of court operations, all judicial duties will be handled by acting President Judge Louis Dayich. During his leave, cases currently assigned to Judge Toothman will be continued and parties will be notified by court order.
