Chief Justice Castille to hold audio news conference to discuss efforts to reduce civil case backlog in Pennsylvania county courts

HARRISBURG –On Monday, Sept. 29, at 11 a.m., Chief Justice of Pennsylvania Ronald D. Castille will hold a news conference via conference call to discuss the courts’ efforts to address the inventory of civil cases on the Common Pleas Courts’ dockets.

The two-year project has been a priority of Chief Justice Castille. He will discuss the reasons for the project and the results and will take questions. A new data dashboard will also be released to provide an easy-to-understand look at the civil case inventory in Pennsylvania.

Your participation is invited.
