Pennsylvania Supreme Court Justice David Wecht Self-Quarantines with Family

HARRISBURG – Pennsylvania Supreme Court Justice David N. Wecht released the following information related to COVID-19.

Upon returning from overseas studies, one of Justice Wecht’s children tested presumptively positive for COVID-19, the result of which was first reported to him late Mon., March 16.

As a result, based on medical advice, the Justice has self-quarantined along with his family.
