IT IS FURTHER ORDERED the operation of Pa.R.Crim.P.No. 600 is suspended in the 31st Judicial District through May 1, 2020, so that the time period from the date of this order through May 1, 2020, shall be excluded from the time computation under Pa.R.Crim.P.No. 600(C) without prejudice to a criminal defendant's right to a speedy trial under the United States and Pennsylvania Constitutions.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED time calculations for the purpose of time computation relevant to court cases and other judicial business, as well as time deadlines, are suspended through May 1, 2020, subject to constitutional restrictions.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED any legal papers, pleadings, motions or petitions, including original service, required to be filed or effected between March 17, 2020, and May 1, 2020, shall be deemed to have been filed timely if they are filed by May 21, 2020, or on a later date as permitted by court order, subject to constitutional restrictions, statute of limitations or appellate court direction.

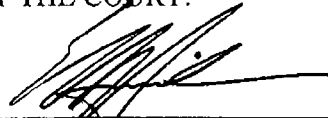

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED Payments rendered to the Magisterial Court shall not be made in person, but may be accepted by mail, electronically (online), or by telephone. In the event any scheduled payment is missed, or default of a payment plan previously imposed by the court occurs, the Magisterial District court shall issue a hearing notice scheduling a payment determination hearing to be held on a new date after May 1, 2020. Such missed payment or default shall not result in the issuance of an arrest warrant for failure to make payment, nor shall the non-payment result in driving privileges being suspended prior to such hearing.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, through and including May 1, 2020, no officer, official or other person employed by the Pennsylvania Judiciary at any level shall effectuate an eviction, ejectment, or other displacement from a residence based upon the failure to make a monetary payment. Such payments include rent, loan, mortgage loan, property tax and other similar payments. Nothing herein is intended to preclude requests for orders of possession resulting from judgments entered in landlord-tenant actions to be filed by mail. However, any execution on an order of possession is stayed through May 1, 2020, subject to further order.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, to the extent possible, all proceedings shall be undertaken consistent with guidance from the United States Centers for Disease Control and Prevention.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED this Order supersedes all previous Emergency Orders.
