

IN RE: STATEWIDE JUDICIAL : IN THE SUPERIOR COURT OF EMERGENCY : PENNSYLVANIA
RE: SCHEDULING OF TELEPHONIC :
ARGUMENT : No. 3 Administrative Docket

SUPPLEMENTAL ORDER

May 15, 2020: Upon consideration of current circumstances relating to the COVID-19 (coronavirus) pandemic, the state of emergency declared by the Governor of Pennsylvania, the Orders of the Pennsylvania Supreme Court, and guidance from the Pennsylvania Department of Health:

The Superior Court has scheduled oral argument by telephone conference in a limited number of cases previously ordered to be submitted on brief.

On May 18, 2020, the following case will be argued by telephonic conference before the Superior Court Panel All consisting of President Judge Jack Panella, Judge Maria McLaughlin, and PJE Correale Stevens.

May 18, 2020, at 9:00 a.m., L.I.K. v. K.M.K., J-A11032-20, 1636 MDA 2019

In keeping with public health guidance in response to COVID-19, the Judges and counsel will all participate remotely. In order to make the argument accessible to the news media and public, the Court will publish necessary sign-on information. Counsel will be contacted with confirmation and details for the telephonic argument session.
