MIFFLIN COUNTY
CLERK OF COURTS

ADMINISTRATIVE ORDER

AND NOW, this 10th day of July, 2020, effective immediately, in accordance with Governor Tom Wolf's Order for Staying the Notice Requirements for Certain Actions Related to the Dispossession of Property, dated July 9, 2020, the Court hereby ORDERS the following:

- (1) The notice requirements mandated by Act 6 and Act 91 are stayed until August 31, 2020. All foreclosures requiring compliance with Act 6 and Act 91 cannot commence until August 21, 2020. All foreclosure timelines must be computed with a start date of August 31, 2020, at which point any previously delivered Act 6 and Act 91 notices will be deemed delivered and any foreclosure process may commence. The foreclosure actions requiring Act 6 and Act 91 compliance may proceed from that point forward in the normal course of action.
- (2) The notice requirements mandated by the Landlord and Tenant Act of 1951 and the Manufactured Home Community Rights Act are stayed, thereby tolling the ability to commence the timelines necessary for the initiation of eviction proceedings until August 31, 2020. All eviction proceedings requiring compliance with the Landlord and Tenant Act of 1951 and the Manufactured Home Community Rights Act cannot commence until August 31, 2020. All eviction timelines must be computed with a start date of August 31, 2020, at which point any previously delivered Landlord and Tenant Act of 1951 and Manufactured Home Community Rights Act notices will be deemed delivered and any eviction proceedings may commence. The eviction proceedings requiring compliance with the Landlord and Tenant Act of 1951 and the Manufactured Home Community Rights may proceed from that point forward in the normal course of action.

This order is effective immediately and will remain in effect until August 31, 2020.
