System assessment and data analysis sources

System Assessment Sources

- Interviews/Meetings
  - Department of Human Services’ (DHS) Office of Children, Youth and Families (OCYF) and Office of Mental Health and Substance Abuse Services (OMHSAS)
  - Juvenile Court Judges’ Commission
  - Juvenile Justice System Enhancement Strategy executive leadership team
  - Judges, prosecutors, defense attorneys
  - Chief juvenile probation officers and juvenile probation officers
  - Service providers
  - Individual school districts

Documents Reviewed

- State statute
- Rules of judicial administration
- Rules of juvenile court procedure
- Administrative policies & regulations
- School disciplinary policies

Data Reviewed

State Data
- Juvenile Court Judges’ Commission
- Administrative Office of Pennsylvania Courts
- Department of Education
- Department of Human Services

Questionnaires

- 684 juvenile probation officer respondents
  - Representing all 67 counties
  - 56% response rate
- 61 juvenile court judge respondents
  - 42% response rate

National Data

- FBI Uniform Crime Report (youth arrest rates)
- Center for Disease Control (youth population)

Data notes

Data limitations

- Data are correlational, not causal
- Unable to link data between state agencies (e.g., PDE, JCJC, and DHS)

Missing data

- Most recent JCJC data (2019) was not validated at time of collection, with the exception of detention

Overall

- Numbers may not equal 100% due to rounding
- Placement data reflective of youth with cases closed between 2014 and 2018
- Expungement data reflective of dismissed and withdrawn cases, informal adjustments, and consent decrees from 2017; adjudicated cases from 2013
Placement and System Costs Abridged Takeaways

• The court may place youth for any delinquency adjudication or violation
  – Five state facilities must accept eligible youth; 400+ private facilities have broad discretion to reject youth for admission and eject for “failure to adjust”
• Over ten years, as allegations dropped 47%, placement dispositions also fell 54%

Placement and System Costs Abridged Takeaways

• Placement dispositions largely driven by youth with misdemeanors and non-person offenses and by youth with no prior adjudications; unchanged over time
• 54% of youth with placement dispositions score moderate risk; 14% score low
  – Those assessed low-risk also generally score low need across most domains
• Disparities for Black Non-Hispanic youth are greatest for pre-adjudication detention and placement
  – Black Non-Hispanic males represent 42% of placement dispositions for misdemeanors compared to 28% of misdemeanor written allegations
Placement and System Costs Abridged Takeaways

- In FY19, 80% of Pennsylvania’s $349 million juvenile delinquency services expenditures went to out-of-home placements
  - State-run facilities average $192,720 per youth per year; private placements average $107,468 per youth per year
  - Those figures exclude added education costs for youth in placement, costs paid by private insurance and Medicaid, and costs paid for dual-system youth

Number of Placements and Length of Stay For Youth with Placement Dispositions

“Out-of-home placement” figures include the total number out-of-home placements for youth with placement dispositions, including detention, shelter, and residential placements.

*Includes total time spent in detention facilities, shelter facilities, and residential placement facilities. Total cumulative length of time out of home is calculated by summing together the length of time at each out-of-home placement.
Black Non-Hispanic males average the most cumulative time out of home

*Includes total time spent in detention facilities, shelter facilities, and residential placement facilities. Total cumulative length of time out of home is calculated by summing together the length of time at each out-of-home placement. Asian Non-Hispanic youth have been excluded due to their low numbers.

Overall court supervision length for youth with placement dispositions is more than three years, on average

*Total length of time under juvenile court supervision is calculated from the date the youth was open for services to the date in which the youth was closed for services.
Among youth with placement dispositions, Black Non-Hispanic males spend the most time under court supervision.

Placement Takeaways – Length of Stay and Supervision

- Among youth with placement dispositions, almost half spend time in five or more out-of-home placements
  - Youth average two residential placements; over a quarter go to three or more
- Youth average 6.5 months out-of-home per residential placement
- Cumulatively, youth with placement dispositions spend 16 months out-of-home, on average; 18% spend over two years
- Youth with placement dispositions spend more than three years under overall court supervision, on average
- Black Non-Hispanic males with placement dispositions average the most cumulative time out of home and spend the most time under overall court supervision.
COVID-19 Discussion

- How has COVID-19 impacted you or your colleagues work in the juvenile justice system?
- What is your understanding of the impact COVID-19 has had on youth currently involved in the juvenile justice system?
- How has COVID-19 illuminated underlying challenges in the juvenile justice system impacting youth and staff?
At every stage of the juvenile justice system, from arrest to disposition, a record is created.

Juvenile records include official court records, juvenile probation files (includes school records and reports), docket entries and law enforcement records (i.e. arrest records, fingerprints and photographs).

Juvenile records do not automatically disappear in adulthood.

*The court may also expunge juvenile records by court order once a child reaches the age of 18 if the Commonwealth attorney consents to the expungement.
Juvenile court involvement and the associated records may lead to lasting detrimental consequences

Exclusionary Discipline (at School)  Employment/Occupational Licensing  Housing  Military Enlistment
License to Drive  Firearm Possession  Public Benefits  College Admission
Credit  Adoption  Registration for Sex Offenses  Immigration

*Adjudications of delinquency can be considered by the court when sentencing following a criminal conviction and may lead to sentencing enhancements in both the state and federal systems.

The majority of eligible cases are not expunged, including 96% of eligible adjudicated cases.

Wide variation in county expungement rates among eligible cases, ranging from zero to 75% or greater.
Wide variation among expungement rates by race; less than 10% of eligible cases for Hispanic youth are expunged

Expungement Takeaways

• Records associated with a youth’s juvenile justice system involvement do not automatically disappear in adulthood, even if their case is dismissed or withdrawn
• Those arrest and court records may have lasting detrimental consequences, affecting employment prospects, military enlistment, family housing, education, among many other areas
• Most cases eligible for expungement are not expunged, including:
  – 76% of cases that were dismissed or withdrawn
  – 96% of eligible adjudicated cases
• Wide variation in county expungement rates among eligible cases, including two counties with 75% or more of eligible cases expunged and seven counties with none
• Other?
Next Steps

• Data analysis and system assessment
• Stakeholder outreach
  – Roundtables
  – Public testimony
  – Dissemination of meeting executive summaries
