Leonard A. Namiotka has been a police officer for the City of Scranton since being appointed in 1993. He was promoted to Chief September 12, 2020. Prior to this appointment, he has held the ranks of patrolman, Corporal, Sergeant and Lieutenant. As Lieutenant, he was the supervisor of the Records Unit and Training Division for fifteen years. Chief Namiotka graduated from the University of Scranton with a bachelor’s degree in criminal justice. Chief Namiotka has two children Jarek and Sarah and lives home with his wife Joan.

Morgan Bathgate is a college student at Messiah University studying Psychology. She graduated in 2020 from Mechanicsburg Area Senior High where she also played water polo, swam competitively, played violin, maintained a 4.0 GPA and took six Advanced Placement (AP) classes.

She was diagnosed with Autism when she was 3 years old. Morgan likes to remind people that she may think differently, learn differently and at times struggle to focus—but she embraces her extraordinary abilities. She is different—but not less. Morgan describes herself as family oriented, artsy, techie, bookish, musical and adventurous. She loves nature, animals, video games and drawing.