- d. Former RPC 1.15(b), requiring a lawyer to promptly notify the client or third person upon receiving property of a client or third person in connection with a client-lawyer relationship and

- i. Former Pa.R.D.E. 203(b)(1) which states the following shall be grounds for discipline: Conviction of a crime which under Enforcement Rule 214 (relating to attorneys convicted of crimes) may result in suspension.

SPECIFIC JOINT RECOMMENDATION FOR DISCIPLINE CONSISTING OF A FIVE-YEAR SUSPENSION RETROACTIVE TO THE DATE OF THE TEMPORARY LICENSE SUSPENSION

44. Petitioner and Respondent jointly recommend that the appropriate discipline for Respondent's admitted misconduct is a suspension from the practice of law for a period of five years.

45. Respondent hereby consents to that discipline being imposed upon him by the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania. Attached to this petition, marked as Exhibit A, is Respondent's executed affidavit required by Rule 215, Pa.R.D.E., stating that he consents to the recommended discipline and which includes the mandatory acknowledgements required by Rule 215 (d)(1) through (4), Pa.R.D.E.

46. In support of Petitioner and Respondent's joint recommendation, it is respectfully submitted that the following mitigating circumstances are present:

- a. Respondent is 63 years old has no history of prior discipline and had been practicing law for approximately 37 years;

- b. Respondent has admitted his wrongdoing and is remorseful.
- c. Respondent has fully cooperated with ODC as evidenced by his entering into a joint petition for temporary suspension and by entering into this joint petition on consent.
- d. Respondent has made partial restitution which is evidenced by his unconditional payment of $30,000.00 to Joseph Calderone's attorney on April 18, 2011.
- e. Respondent has provided psychological testimony relating to his addiction to alcohol and drugs and its effect on his criminal convictions and conversion. The testimony of the medical professional opines that his criminal acts were directly related to and caused by his addiction to drugs and alcohol.²
- f. Respondent has provided evidence relating to his subsequent successful efforts at recovery and rehabilitation in the form of testimony from his LCL mentor and AA sponsor. Evidence in support of his efforts includes sustained involvement and commitment to the twelve-step program and active participation in LCL, NA, and AA. (Exhibits B & C)

- g. Respondent has been gainfully employed with the same employer for more than a year and can provide additional evidence of Respondent's recovery.

In Pennsylvania, there is no per se discipline for a particular type of misconduct, but instead each case is reviewed individually as established in the case of Office of Disciplinary Counsel v. Lucarini, 417 A.2d 186 (Pa. 1983).

The knowing conversion of fiduciary funds is a serious breach of ethics. Cases illustrate that a five-year suspension or disbarment may be imposed on attorneys who knowingly convert client funds. Compare Office of Disciplinary Counsel v. Anthony Dennis Jackson, 99 DB 2006 D.Bd. Rpt. 12/13/2007 (S.Ct. Order 4/23/2008) (attorney who converted $33,285 from a wrongful death settlement and neglected one client matter received a five-year suspension), with Office of Disciplinary Counsel v. Rainone, 60 DB 2004, D.Bd. Rpt. 5/11/2006 (S.Ct. Order 12/21/2006) (Supreme Court disbarred an attorney who converted over $26,000.00 in four client matters and neglected a fifth client matter). See however, Office of Disciplinary Counsel v. Patricia M. Renfroe a/k/a Patty M. Renfroe and Patty Michelle Renfroe, No. 122 DB 2004, D.Bd. Rpt. 8/30/05 (S.Ct. Order 11/1/05) (attorney, who had practiced law for twenty-four years without a record of discipline, disbarred for misappropriating $155,702.00 in a single client matter); and Office of Disciplinary Counsel v. Paul Hammer, No. 87 DB 2001, D.Bd. Rpt. 9/29/05 (S.Ct. Order 1/5/06) (disbarment ordered for an attorney, with prior record of discipline for dissimilar conduct, who converted $14,887.88 in one client matter and made partial restitution). Balancing the serious nature of Respondent's criminal acts against the proposed mitigation, including Braun evidence and Respondent's ongoing efforts to address his addiction, it is respectfully requested that a five-year suspension will sufficiently protect the public.

The imposition of a five-year suspension is consistent with the range of sanctions imposed, In the Matter of Marx S. Leopold, 366 A.2d 227 (Nov. 24, 1976).

WHEREFORE, Petitioner and Respondent respectfully request that, pursuant to Pennsylvania Rules of Disciplinary Enforcement 215(e) and 215(g), a three member panel of the Disciplinary Board review and approve the Joint Petition in Support of Discipline on Consent and file a recommendation with the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania that Respondent be suspended for a period of five years, retroactive to May 17, 2010, the date Respondent was placed on temporary suspension, and that Respondent be ordered to pay all necessary expenses incurred in the investigation and prosecution in the matter as a condition to the grant of the Petition.

RE: Brian S. Quinn
DOB: 6-16-1948

To Whom It May Concern:

I am writing this letter on behalf of the above-mentioned client, who has been in our care since his initial evaluation on October 17, 2008. After completing a Bio-psych-social assessment, it was advised that Brian attend and complete our Intensive Outpatient Treatment program. Prior to this, he completed a very intensive one month long inpatient program at Gaudenzia's Common Ground in Harrisburg, PA.

Brian did complete our Intensive Outpatient Treatment Program, which consists of four two-hour sessions per week, on December 3, 2008, and was invited into our Continuing Care Group, which meets once weekly for two hours. Prior to his incarceration Brian also met with me on an individual basis once weekly, and then returned to our once weekly group when discharged. He successfully completed all recommended treatments on March 24, 2011 and was discharged "Complete" at that time. His discharge diagnosis is "Very good".

We recommend attendance at 12 Step Fellowship meetings at least three times a week, in addition to attendance at group sessions. Brian has been attending daily AA meetings since his initial evaluation, has a strong sponsor and is an integral member of his AA home group. He has maintained abstinence from alcohol and any and all chemical substances, has had all negative random drug screenings while in our care, and has participated fully in his treatment and in his own recovery. I have every reason to believe that he will continue to do so.

Brian has suffered from medical conditions during the last two years, and has nonetheless continued to attend his daily AA meetings and counseling sessions using public transportation and walking under the most adverse conditions. The energy and enthusiasm that Brian has put into his recovery has been nothing short of remarkable in my estimation and experience. I strongly believe that Brian has helped many people these past years who have witnessed his determination, and I have faith that this will continue.

I firmly believe that his experiences and resolve will only help him to be a better person and lawyer in the future.

I thank you for this opportunity to speak on Brian's behalf.

Re: Brian Quinn

Dear Ms. Dugan:

I have known Brian Quinn since he was first admitted to practice in Delaware County. Our paths crossed both in our practices and in the political arena. However, I have only come to know Brian intimately as a person and fellow recovering alcoholic since he was discharged from Common Grounds treatment facility. Since that time, I have been acting as his Pre Order Monitor.

I made sure that he got a sponsor, was going to meetings, introduced him to the Delaware County Lawyers meeting, drove him to some meetings, spoke to him weekly, saw him and talked to him at other meetings in the community.

I have acted as a resource person for him with regard to some other recovery issues. I have listened to him regarding some of his living problems and in fact have acted as back up sponsor when he was unable to connect with his actual sponsor.

I have acted as Pre-Order Monitor for other attorneys over the years and have had the opportunity to testify at their Disciplinary Board Hearings. I would whole heartedly testify before the Board on Brian's behalf. As I wrote to the sentencing judge, I have been impressed with Brian's commitment to his recovery program. He has been able to weather many of life's problems and deal with much wreckage of his past and maintain his sobriety.

There is no question in my mind that Brian's transgressions as an attorney were directly related to his addiction.

Let me know if there is anything else you need from me concerning Brian's case.

Sincerely,

STAPLETON & COLDEN
