SECOND SUPERSEDING INDICTMENT

COUNT ONE

THE GRAND JURY CHARGES THAT:

At all times material to this indictment:

1. Title 11 of the United States Code was the uniform federal law governing all bankruptcy cases. The bankruptcy system was designed to achieve the dual objectives of assisting honest debtors and protecting creditors. Chapter 7 bankruptcy cases involved the liquidation of the debtor's assets. When a Chapter 7 bankruptcy case was filed, an impartial bankruptcy trustee was appointed to collect and liquidate assets for the benefit of creditors.

2. Whenever a bankruptcy case was filed, a bankruptcy "estate" was created consisting of the debtor's legal and equitable interests in property and in any other assets at the time the bankruptcy case was filed.

3. At the commencement of a bankruptcy case, the debtor was required to sign and file, under penalty of perjury, a bankruptcy petition, schedules providing information regarding all of the debtor's interests in assets, and a statement of financial affairs disclosing, among other things, the transfers of assets during the year preceding the filing of bankruptcy. During the pendency of a bankruptcy case, the court appointed bankruptcy trustee may ask questions of the debtors at a Section 341 Meeting of Creditors.

4. Federal Rule of Bankruptcy Procedure 2016(b) required an attorney representing a debtor to disclose the amount of compensation received from a debtor or on behalf of a debtor in a bankruptcy case.

5. Debtors J.M. and M.M., persons known to the grand jury, lived in Lancaster, Pennsylvania and owned a number of rental properties. J.M. and M.M. owed debts to a number of creditors, including holders of the mortgage on their rental properties, holders of liens on automobiles owned by J.M. and M.M., and various credit card companies.

6. Defendants KENNETH G. REIDENBACH and HERBERT P. HENDERSON were attorneys licensed to practice in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania and who had offices at 36 East King Street, in Lancaster, Pennsylvania.

7. Beginning in or about August 2003, and continuing through at least January 9, 2006, in Lancaster, in the Eastern District of Pennsylvania, and elsewhere, defendants

KENNETH G. REIDENBACH and

conspired and agreed together to commit offenses against the United States, that is, to knowingly and fraudulently conceal property belonging to the estate of a debtor and make false oaths, declarations, and certifications, in violation of 18 U.S.C. § 152, and to knowingly devise a scheme to defraud in relation to a bankruptcy proceeding, in violation of 18 U.S.C. § 157.

MANNER AND MEANS

It was part of the conspiracy that:

8. Attorney defendants KENNETH G. REIDENBACH and HERBERT P. HENDERSON hid more than $50,000 in cash from the bankruptcy trustee and then conspired to keep the cash for themselves.

9. Beginning in or about August 2003, J.M. and M.M. sought legal advice in connection with a possible bankruptcy filing.

10. On or about August 18, 2003, J.M. and M.M. retained the services of defendants KENNETH G. REIDENBACH and HERBERT P. HENDERSON to represent them in connection with a possible bankruptcy filing. J.M. and M.M. paid defendants REIDENBACH and HENDERSON approximately $2,500 as a retainer to cover legal fees and expenses.

11. Between February and June 2004, on the instruction of defendants KENNETH G. REIDENBACH and HERBERT P. HENDERSON, J.M. and M.M. sold four rental properties, netting total proceeds to J.M. and M.M. at settlement of approximately $51,489.

12. Defendants KENNETH G. REIDENBACH and HERBERT P. HENDERSON further instructed debtors J.M. and M.M. to transfer the proceeds of any sale of rental property owned by J.M. and M.M. to a trust account controlled by defendant

REIDENBACH. Defendants REIDENBACH and HENDERSON falsely represented that they would return these funds to J.M. and M.M. after the discharge of J.M. and M.M.'s bankruptcy.

13. Defendant HERBERT P. HENDERSON attended closings on the sale of rental properties owned by J.M. and M.M. and collected the proceeds of the sales.

14. Defendants KENNETH G. REIDENBACH and HERBERT P. HENDERSON did not send an accounting of the funds in their possession or a bill for legal services to J.M. and M.M. for more than two years after J.M. and M.M. engaged defendants REIDENBACH and HENDERSON.

15. As it was clear that J.M. and M.M. could not pay their creditors, Defendants KENNETH G. REIDENBACH and HERBERT P. HENDERSON advised J.M. and M.M. to file a voluntary Chapter 7 bankruptcy petition.

16. Defendant HERBERT P. HENDERSON instructed J.M. and M.M. not to disclose during the bankruptcy proceedings any of the more than $51,000 that J.M. and M.M. realized from the sale of J.M. and M.M.'s property, which money J.M. and M.M. had transferred to an account controlled by defendant KENNETH G. REIDENBACH.

17. Defendant HERBERT P. HENDERSON prepared a fraudulent voluntary Chapter 7 bankruptcy petition on behalf of J.M. and M.M. that concealed the funds transferred by J.M. and M.M. to an account controlled by defendant.

18. After the Bankruptcy Court entered an order of discharge for J.M. and M.M., defendants KENNETH G. REIDENBACH and HERBERT P. HENDERSON prepared a fraudulent bill for legal services that exceeded by more than 20 times the amount that defendants REIDENBACH and HENDERSON agreed to accept as fees for the bankruptcy proceeding and exceeded the approximately $51,489 that J.M. and M.M. had transferred to an account controlled by defendant REIDENBACH.

OVERT ACTS

In furtherance of the conspiracy, defendants KENNETH G. REIDENBACH and HERBERT P. HENDERSON, and others known and unknown to the grand jury, committed the following overt acts in the Eastern District of Pennsylvania and elsewhere:

1. On or about August 18, 2003, defendants KENNETH G. REIDENBACH and HERBERT P. HENDERSON met with J.M. and M.M. to discuss debts that J.M. and M.M. owed to various creditors.

2. On or about August 18, 2003, defendants KENNETH G. REIDENBACH and HERBERT P. HENDERSON entered into a fee agreement with J.M. and M.M., in which defendants REIDENBACH and HENDERSON represented that $2,200 was “a good faith estimate of the amount of professional time which will be expended by the law firm in undertaking” the representation of J.M. and M.M.

3. On or about August 18, 2003, defendants KENNETH G. REIDENBACH and HERBERT P. HENDERSON instructed J.M. and M.M. to transfer the proceeds of sales of rental property to an account controlled by defendant REIDENBACH.

4. On or about February 27, 2004, defendants KENNETH G. REIDENBACH and HERBERT P. HENDERSON obtained $7,362.10, which represented the proceeds of the sale of a property owned by J.M. and M.M., and deposited $7,362.10 into an account at Citizens Bank that was controlled by defendant REIDENBACH.

5. On or about February 27, 2004, defendants KENNETH G. REIDENBACH and HERBERT P. HENDERSON obtained $13,449.69, which represented the proceeds of the sale of a property owned by J.M. and M.M., and deposited $13,449.69 into an account at Citizens Bank that was controlled by defendant REIDENBACH.

6. On or about April 8, 2004, defendants KENNETH G. REIDENBACH and HERBERT P. HENDERSON obtained $24,747.77, which represented the proceeds of the sale of a property owned by J.M. and M.M., and deposited $24,747.77 into an account at Citizens Bank that was controlled by defendant REIDENBACH.

7. On or about June 7, 2004, defendants KENNETH G. REIDENBACH and HERBERT P. HENDERSON obtained $5,929.47, which represented the proceeds of the sale of a property owned by J.M. and M.M., and deposited $5,929.47 into an account at Citizens Bank that was controlled by defendant REIDENBACH.

8. On or about August 12, 2005, defendant HERBERT P. HENDERSON filed a fraudulent voluntary Chapter 7 bankruptcy petition in the United States Bankruptcy Court for the Eastern District of Pennsylvania (docket number 05-24688-ref) on behalf J.M. and M.M., which petition did not list any assets held by defendants HENDERSON and KENNETH G. REIDENBACH in an account controlled by defendant REIDENBACH. The statement of financial affairs in the Chapter 7 bankruptcy petition, filed by defendant HENDERSON, falsely stated that debtors J.M. and M.M. paid defendants HENDERSON and REIDENBACH $1,500 in the year prior to filing bankruptcy.

9. On or about August 12, 2005, defendant HERBERT P. HENDERSON signed a Federal Rule of Bankruptcy Procedure Rule 2016(b) statement under penalty of perjury, and filed the statement in the United States Bankruptcy Court for the Eastern District of Pennsylvania, in which defendant HENDERSON falsely stated that defendants HENDERSON and KENNETH G. REIDENBACH had received and agreed to accept $1,500 for services rendered in or related to the debtors bankruptcy case.

10. On or about October 24, 2005, defendant HERBERT P. HENDERSON attended a Section 341 First Meeting of Creditors with debtors J.M. and M.M. At this meeting, the court appointed trustee asked J.M. and M.M. if they had engaged in any real estate transactions in the two years preceding the bankruptcy filing. Neither J.M. nor M.M. nor defendant HENDERSON disclosed their real estate sales or the approximately $51,489 of real estate proceeds that J.M. and M.M. transferred at the direction of defendants HENDERSON and KENNETH G. REIDENBACH to an account controlled by defendant REIDENBACH.

11. On or about December 15, 2005, the United States Bankruptcy Court for the Eastern District of Pennsylvania entered an order of discharge that discharged J.M. and M.M. of their debts, as provided by the bankruptcy code.

12. On or about January 9, 2006, defendants KENNETH G. REIDENBACH and HERBERT P. HENDERSON prepared and presented to J.M. and M.M. an inflated statement of account for professional services provided to J.M. and M.M. This statement fraudulently billed J.M. and M.M. $31,633 for professional services and $23,247.33 for costs associated with representation of J.M. and M.M. This statement falsely alleged that J.M. and M.M. had made the following payments to the firm for legal services: $2,500 on August 18, 2003; $13,449.69 on March 2, 2004; $7,362.10 on March 2, 2004; $24,747.77 on April 12, 2004; and $5,929.47 on June 8, 2004.

All in violation of Title 18, United States Code, Section 371.
