

IN THE SUPREME COURT OF PENNSYLVANIA
WESTERN DISTRICT

|                         |   |                                       |
|-------------------------|---|---------------------------------------|
| STEVEN MADER,           | : | No. 502 WAL 2018                      |
|                         | : |                                       |
| Petitioner              | : |                                       |
|                         | : |                                       |
| v.                      | : | Petition for Allowance of Appeal from |
|                         | : | the Order of the Superior Court       |
|                         | : |                                       |
|                         | : |                                       |
|                         | : |                                       |
| DUQUESNE LIGHT COMPANY, | : |                                       |
|                         | : |                                       |
| Respondent              | : |                                       |

ORDER

PER CURIAM

AND NOW, this 14th day of August, 2019, the Petition for Allowance of Appeal is GRANTED. The issues, as stated by Petitioner, are:

- (1) Whether it is within the trial court's discretion to grant a new trial on all damages when the jury's verdict as to significant portions of the damages verdict is so irrational that it shocks one's sense of justice.
- (2) Whether the panel misapplied the abuse of discretion standard and created new law by requiring a piecemeal evaluation of a clearly improper damages verdict.