

RULE 407. ADMISSIONS

A. Admissions. At any time after a petition is filed, the juvenile may tender an admission to some or all of the delinquent acts charged.

1) Requirements.

- a) Before the court can accept an admission, the court shall determine that the admission is knowingly, intelligently, and voluntarily made.
- b) As a part of this determination, the court shall ensure:
  - i) an attorney has reviewed and completed the admission colloquy with the juvenile pursuant to paragraph (C); and
  - ii) there is a factual basis for the admission.
- c) At the hearing, the court shall conduct an independent inquiry with the juvenile to determine:
  - i) whether the juvenile understands the nature of the allegations to which he or she is admitting and understands what it means to admit;
  - ii) whether the juvenile understands that he or she has the right to a hearing before the judge and understands what occurs at a hearing;
  - iii) whether the juvenile is aware of the dispositions that could be imposed and the consequences of an adjudication of delinquency that can result from an admission;
  - iv) whether the juvenile has any questions about the admission; and
  - v) whether there are any other concerns apparent to the court after such inquiry that should be answered.

2) Agreements. If the parties agree upon the terms of an admission, the tender shall be presented to the court.

3) Court [a]Action. If the court accepts the tender, the court shall enter an order incorporating any agreement. If the court does not accept the tender, the case shall proceed as if no tender had been made.

4) Limitations on [w]Withdrawals. An admission may be withdrawn prior to the court entering the dispositional order. After the court has entered the dispositional order, an admission can be withdrawn only upon a demonstration of manifest injustice.

B. Incriminating [s]Statements. An incriminating statement made by a juvenile in the discussions or conferences incident to an admission that is not ultimately accepted by the court or otherwise permitted to be withdrawn by the court shall not be used against the juvenile over objection in any criminal proceeding or hearing under the Juvenile Act, 42 Pa.C.S. § 6301 et seq.

C. Written [a]Admission [c]Colloquy. If a juvenile is making an admission, the colloquy shall be:

1) in writing;

2) reviewed and completed with the juvenile by an attorney;

3) submitted to and reviewed by the court; and

4) substantially in the following form:

COMMENT

Under paragraph (A)(1), the court is to determine if the admission is knowingly, intelligently, and voluntarily made by asking questions to ascertain the juvenile's ability to comprehend the written colloquy and to make an admission.

The written colloquy serves as an aid for the court in making its determination that the admission is knowingly, intelligently, and voluntarily made and it does not supplant the court's responsibility to conduct a sufficient inquiry to support its determination pursuant to paragraph (A)(1).

Nothing in this rule prohibits the judge from reviewing the entire written colloquy with the juvenile on the record or asking more questions than required under paragraph (A)(1)(c).

The admission colloquy is similar to a guilty plea colloquy in criminal court; however, the juvenile court judge has special responsibilities under the Juvenile Act in providing a balanced attention to the protection of the community, the imposition of accountability for delinquent acts committed, and the development of competencies to enable juveniles to become responsible and productive members of the community. See 42 Pa.C.S. § 6301.

If the court finds an admission is not knowingly, intelligently, and voluntarily made, the case is to proceed to a hearing pursuant to Rule 406. The decision whether an admission is knowingly, intelligently, and voluntarily made is not appealable to another common pleas judge; therefore, the admission may not be presented to another judge once this determination has been made.

Under paragraph (A)(3), if the disposition agreed upon by the parties is unavailable or the court does not agree with the terms of the tender, the case is to proceed as if no tender had been made.

The court is not to accept a plea of nolo contendere. See In re B.P.Y., 712 A.2d 769 (Pa. Super. [Ct.] 1998).

If the court does not accept an agreement or finds an admission not to be knowingly, intelligently, and voluntarily made, a motion for recusal of the judge may be appropriate for the adjudicatory hearing.

Pursuant to paragraph (C), an attorney is to review the written admission colloquy with the juvenile prior to entering the courtroom. The practice in some judicial districts permitting the juvenile probation officer to review this colloquy with the juvenile is inconsistent with this rule.

Pursuant to paragraph (D), the written admission colloquy in paragraph (C) is to be amended when the juvenile is admitting to an act that would render the juvenile eligible for court-ordered involuntary treatment upon attaining 20 years of age. See 42 Pa.C.S. §§ 6358, 6403. The court is to conduct a colloquy as to the potential consequences of an admission of this type using the form in paragraph (D).

The colloquy forms use[s] several age-appropriate terms for the juvenile to understand; however, certain legal terms are contained in the form. It is expected that attorneys will explain [this form] these forms until their clients understand.

[Pursuant to paragraph (C)(4), the admission colloquy is] The forms used for admissions are to be substantially in [this] the forms found at paragraphs (C)(4) and (D). The questions set forth are the minimal standard. A judicial district may choose to add requirements to [its] these admission [colloquy] colloquies. Any addition to the required [colloquy] colloquies is considered a local rule and the procedures of Rule 121 are to be followed if a judicial district chooses to make additions. See Rule 121.
