

ADMINISTRATIVE OFFICE of PENNSYLVANIA COURTS

March 22, 2020

The following guidance has been issued to president judges by Geoff Moulton, court administrator, Administrative Office of Pennsylvania Courts regarding attorneys' and legal professionals' participation in essential court functions:

In the view of AOPC, restricted access to law offices and facilities by legal professionals, staff, and clients is permitted to the degree necessary to allow attorneys to participate in court functions deemed essential by a President Judge per the Supreme Court's order of March 18, 2020, so long as social distancing and other mitigation measures are employed for the protection of lawyers, staff, and clients. Pursuant to the Governor's order, all other business must be conducted remotely; necessary retrieval of files or other materials should be accomplished expeditiously.

The list of affected businesses can be found here
