

DOCTOR
LUCAS D.
MALISHCHAK

Dr. Lucas D. Malishchak is the Director of the Psychology Office for the Pennsylvania Department of Corrections. In this leadership role, Lucas is responsible for the administrative and clinical oversight of the mental health care system of Pennsylvania's 24 State Correctional Institutions, which includes an infrastructure that supports approximately 40,000 incarcerated individuals. Within this system, more than 13,000 individuals are currently receiving mental health care services delivered by more than 300 mental health care professionals. Additionally, Lucas is responsible for policy development and implementation of his clinical team's vision of Psychological services through strategic direction of the Central Office Psychology Office.