

In Re:48th Judicial District
Declaration of Judicial Emergency

: IN THE COURT OF COMMON PLEAS
: OF McKEAN COUNTY, PENNSYLVANIA
: 48TH JUDICIAL DISTRICT
: No. _____

AND NOW, this 18th day of March, 2020, Per the Supreme Court's Order dated March 16, 2020, the McKean County Court of Common Pleas, 48th Judicial District, is declared to be in a Judicial Emergency. Unless extended due by further order of court, this Order and declaration shall remain in effect until Monday, April 13, 2020, at 8:00 a.m.

To constitute sufficient publication, this declaration shall be:

- A. Posted on the entry doors of the McKean County Courthouse, all magisterial district courts within McKean County and on the entry door of the McKean County Domestic Relations' Complex;
- B. Posted on the McKean County Court of Common Pleas website; and,
- C. Transmitted via e-mail to the McKean County Bar Association, with the request that it be forwarded on to all of its members.

BY THE COURT:

A handwritten signature in cursive script, appearing to read "John H. Pavlock", is written over a horizontal line.

JOHN H. PAVLOCK
PRESIDENT JUDGE