CLERK OF COURTS
2021 MAR -1 PM 12:00
LANCASTER COUNTY, PA

Affidavit of Compliance with the CARES Act and the CDC's September 1, 2020 Agency Order (Affidavit of Compliance) in the form attached hereto as Exhibit "A."

2. Through March 31, 2021, a landlord shall be precluded from proceeding with a landlord/tenant complaint against a tenant for non-payment of rent if the leased residential real property is subject to:

- a. An unsatisfied multifamily mortgage in forbearance status backed by the Federal Home Loan Mortgage Corporation (Freddie Mac) or the Federal National Mortgage Association (Fannie Mae); or
- b. An unsatisfied multifamily mortgage backed by Freddie Mac or Fannie Mae that was in forbearance status and expired, and the landlord has not provided the required notice to vacate to the tenant.

If the landlord is precluded from proceeding against a tenant with an action for the recovery of the possession of leased residential real property, the landlord/tenant complaint shall not be accepted for filing by the Magisterial District Court.

3. Through June 30, 2021, a landlord shall be precluded from proceeding with a landlord/tenant complaint against a tenant for non-payment of rent if the leased residential real property is:

- a. Owned by Freddie Mac or Fannie Mae and acquired through foreclosure or deed-in-lieu of foreclosure transactions; or
- b. Subject to an unsatisfied mortgage backed by the Veteran Benefits Administration (VA); or
- c. Subject to an unsatisfied mortgage backed by the Federal Housing Administration (FHA); or
- d. Subject to an unsatisfied mortgage backed by the U.S. Department of Agriculture (USDA) Single Family Housing Direct (SFHDLP) and Guaranteed Loans (SFHGLP).

If the landlord is precluded from proceeding against a tenant with an action for the recovery of the possession of leased residential real property, the landlord/tenant complaint shall not be accepted for filing by the Magisterial District Court.

4. Additionally, for any residential property not subject to Nos. 2 or 3 above, a landlord, owner of a residential property, or other person with a legal right to pursue eviction or possessory action (landlord) shall not evict any covered person from a residential property (tenant) in Lancaster County, subject to requirements listed in the CDC Agency Order. However,

- a. Tenants are not relieved of any obligation to pay rent, to make a housing payment, or to comply with any other obligation that the individual may have under a tenancy, lease, or similar contract; and
- b. A landlord may charge and/or collect fees, penalties and/or interest as a result of the failure to pay rent or other housing payment on a timely basis, under the terms of any applicable contract.

5. In order to invoke the protection of the CDC Agency Order, the tenant must provide to the landlord an executed copy of the form, "Declaration for the CDC's Temporary Halt in Residential Evictions to Prevent the Further Spread of COVID-19," a copy of which is attached hereto as Exhibit "B" and available at <http://www.pacourts.us/forms/for-the-public> and <https://www.cdc.gov/coronavirus/2019-ncov/downloads/declaration-form.pdf>.

- a. Every adult listed on the lease, rental agreement or housing contract shall complete and provide a Declaration to the landlord. Any adult tenant who does not sign a Declaration and provide the same to the landlord shall not receive the protection of the CDC Agency Order.
- b. The Declaration automatically imposes a stay on the landlord's ability to obtain an Order for Possession to evict the tenant, or if one has already been obtained, to cause the removal of the tenant(s) from the property pursuant to Pa.R.C.P.M.D.J. Rule 519. The landlord retains the right to file a landlord/tenant complaint and proceed to a hearing in the normal course.

6. The protection afforded by the Declaration does not apply if the tenant is or has been:

- a. Engaging in criminal activity while on the premises; or
- b. Threatening the health or safety of other residents; or
- c. Damaging or posing an immediate and significant risk of damage to the rental property; or

- d. Violating any applicable building code, health ordinance, or similar regulation relating to health and safety; or
- e. Violating any other contractual obligation, other than the timely payment of rent or similar housing-related payment (including non-payment or late payment of fees, penalties, or interest). This includes the situation where the tenant(s) fails to vacate the property upon the expiration of the lease.

7. If a Declaration is provided to the landlord prior to the filing of the landlord/tenant complaint, the landlord shall file a copy of the Declaration, landlord/tenant complaint and Affidavit of Compliance with the Magisterial District Court.

8. If the Declaration is not provided to the landlord until after a landlord/tenant complaint has been filed, then either the landlord or the tenant shall file a copy of the Declaration with the Magisterial District Court as soon as possible. However, a Declaration may be filed at any stage in the proceedings prior to removal of the tenant(s) from the property pursuant to Pa.R.C.P.M.D.J. Rule 519.

9. A landlord may challenge the truthfulness and/or applicability of a Declaration at any stage in the proceedings prior to removal of the tenant(s) from the property pursuant to Pa.R.C.P.M.D.J. Rule 519. The challenge shall be in writing on a "Challenge to Declaration" form (or substantially similar form) as attached hereto as Exhibit "C". The challenge shall serve as a request for a hearing.

- a. If the landlord files a Challenge to Declaration, the Magisterial District Judge shall:
 - i. set a hearing within 15 days, or as soon thereafter as the schedule permits. If the challenge is made at the time of the filing of the landlord/tenant complaint, the hearing on the challenge may be heard at the time of the Pa.R.C.P.M.D.J. Rule 504 hearing;
 - ii. deliver a copy of the Challenge to Declaration to the tenant(s) and a copy of the hearing notice to all parties by first class mail; and
 - iii. if a Challenge to Declaration is made after the Pa.R.C.P.M.D.J. Rule 504 hearing, the Magisterial District Judge shall retain jurisdiction to hear the challenge;

- b. A landlord challenging the truthfulness and/or applicability of the Declaration shall have the burden of proof to show that the Declaration is false or that one of the five categories to which the protection afforded by the Declaration does not apply. The averments contained in the Declaration are presumed to be true.

10. After a hearing held pursuant to Section 8, the Magisterial District Judge shall determine whether the landlord has met his/her burden of proof in challenging the Declaration and whether the protection afforded by the Declaration applies to the action. The Magisterial District Judge's decision shall be made at the conclusion of the hearing or within three days thereafter. The parties shall be provided with notice of the decision.

- a. If, prior to the entry of an Order of Possession, the Magisterial District Judge determines that a Declaration is valid and that the Declaration applies to prevent the tenant from being evicted, then the case may proceed in the normal course, except that the ability of a landlord to obtain an Order of Possession shall be stayed until after March 31, 2021.
- b. If, following the entry of an Order of Possession, the Magisterial District Judge determines that a Declaration is valid and that the Declaration applies to prevent the tenant from being evicted, then the landlord's ability to remove the tenant(s) from the property pursuant to Pa.R.C.P.M.D.J. Rule 519 shall be stayed until after March 31, 2021.
- c. If the Magisterial District Judge determines that a Declaration is not valid or that the Declaration is not applicable, then the action, including the removal of the tenant(s) from the property pursuant to Pa.R.C.P.M.D.J. Rule 519, may proceed in the normal course.

11. A party aggrieved by a Magisterial District Judge's determination on the truthfulness and/or applicability of a Declaration may, within ten days of the Magisterial District Judge's determination, file an appeal in the Lancaster County Prothonotary's Office in a Miscellaneous action. A de novo hearing will be scheduled based upon rules and procedures prescribed by the Lancaster County Court of Common Pleas.

12. A landlord may request an Order for Possession within 180 days of the date the stay is stricken, dismissed, lifted, or otherwise terminated, as provided by Pa.R.C.P.M.D.J. No. 515(B).

13. If a Declaration has been deemed to be invalid, the tenant may refile the Declaration, along with proof demonstrating a change in circumstances such that the criteria set forth in the Declaration have been satisfied. Refiling of the Declaration imposes the stay as provided in Paragraph 5(b). A landlord wishing to challenge the amended Declaration shall follow the procedures set forth herein.

14. Delayed filing of a Declaration or repeated filing of invalid/inapplicable Declarations may result in the assessment of additional costs on the tenant(s).

15. Any landlord/tenant action filed in the Magisterial District Courts that was stayed pursuant to this Court's Administrative Orders of September 11, 2020 entitled, "In Re: Landlord/Tenant Actions" and filed at No. A.D. 43-2020, or October 30, 2020 entitled, "In Re: Temporary Procedures Regarding Certain Residential Landlord Tenant Actions" and filed at No. A.D. 52-2020, or January 5, 2021 entitled, "In Re: Temporary Procedures Regarding Certain Residential Landlord Tenant Actions" and filed at No. A.D. 2-2021, or February 2, 2021, entitled, "In Re: Temporary Procedures Regarding Certain Residential Landlord Tenant Actions" and filed at No. A.D. 9-2021, shall proceed in accordance with this Administrative Order.

Docket No: _____
Case Filed: _____

I certify under penalty of perjury, pursuant to 28 U.S.C. 1746, that the foregoing are true and correct:

- I have used best efforts to obtain all available government assistance for rent or housing;¹
- I either expect to earn no more than $99,000 in annual income for Calendar Year 2020 (or no more than $198,000 if filing a joint tax return), was not required to report any income in 2019 to the U.S. Internal Revenue Service, or received an Economic Impact Payment (stimulus check) pursuant to Section 2201 of the CARES Act;
- I am unable to pay my full rent or make a full housing payment due to substantial loss of household income, loss of compensable hours of work or wages, lay-offs, or extraordinary² out-of-pocket medical expenses;
- I am using best efforts to make timely partial payments that are as close to the full payment as the individual's circumstances may permit, taking into account other nondiscretionary expenses;
- If evicted I would likely become homeless, need to move into a homeless shelter, or need to move into a new residence shared by other people who live in close quarters because I have no other available housing options.³
- I understand that I must still pay rent or make a housing payment, and comply with other obligations that I may have under my tenancy, lease agreement, or similar contract. I further understand that fees, penalties, or interest for not paying rent or making a house payment on time as required by my tenancy, lease agreement, or similar contract may still be charged or collected.

² An "extraordinary" medical expense is any unreimbursed medical expense likely to exceed 7.5% of one's adjusted gross income for the year.

³ "Available housing" means any available, unoccupied residential property, or other space for occupancy in any seasonal or temporary housing, that would not violate Federal, State, or local occupancy standards and that would not result in an overall increase of housing cost to you.

- I further understand that at the end of this temporary halt on evictions on March 31, 2021, my housing provider may require payment in full for all payments not made prior to and during the temporary halt and failure to pay may make me subject to eviction pursuant to State and local laws.

I understand that any false or misleading statements or omissions may result in criminal and civil actions for fines, penalties, damages, or imprisonment.
