Pa Supreme Court’s Advisory Council on Elder Justice in the Courts Reacts to the Passing of Washington County District Attorney Eugene “Gene” Vittone

HARRISBURG — The Pennsylvania Supreme Court’s Advisory Council on Elder Justice in the Courts issued a resolution today, lauding the work of and expressing their condolences on the recent passing of Washington County District Attorney Eugene A. “Gene” Vittone II.

Vittone served as a member of the Elder Law Task Force and the Advisory Council on Elder Justice in the Courts.

“We have lost an esteemed colleague, dedicated public servant and respected member of the legal community,” said Supreme Court of Pennsylvania Madame Justice Debra Todd. “Gene was a pillar in the Washington County bar and a friend to all. He was a tireless advocate for elder justice in Pennsylvania and was dedicated to protecting our most vulnerable citizens from abuse and neglect.

“The Advisory Council offers its sincere condolences to the family and friends of Gene during this difficult time. He will be sorely missed.”
