Superior Court of Pennsylvania reflects on Passing of Retired Judge Justin Morris Johnson

Harrisburg – Superior Court of Pennsylvania President Judge Jack Panella released the following statement on behalf of the Court upon the passing of retired Judge Justin Morris Johnson.

Judge Johnson was appointed to the Superior Court in Dec. 1980 and was elected to a full term commencing in Jan. 1986. He served as a senior judge on the court from Jan. 2004 through Dec. 2007.

“Judge Johnson served the court with honor and distinction. He was well known and widely respected for his commitment and dedication to public service, his community and his family. The court mourns the loss of a leader, colleague and friend. He will be greatly missed.”
