IN RE:

COURT OF JUDICIAL DISCIPLINE OF PENNSYLVANIA

Judge Marissa J. Brumbach :
Municipal Court Judge : 2 JD 2022
1st Judicial District :
Philadelphia County :

PETITION FOR RELIEF FOR INTERIM SUSPENSION WITHOUT PAY

AND NOW, this 14th day of December 2022, comes the Judicial Conduct Board of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania (Board), by and through Melissa L. Norton, Interim Chief Counsel, and files this Petition for Relief For Interim Suspension Without Pay pursuant to Article V, § 18(d)(2) of the Pennsylvania Constitution, Rule 701 of the Court of Judicial Discipline Rules of Procedure, and Rule 13(A) of the Judicial Conduct Board Rules of Procedure and in support thereof, avers the following:

1. The Pennsylvania Constitution at Article V, § 18(d)(2) provides this Court with the authority to impose interim suspension as follows:

Prior to a hearing, the court may issue an interim order directing suspension, with or without pay, of any justice, judge or justice of the peace against whom formal charges have been filed with the court by the board or against whom has been filed an indictment or information charging a felony. An interim order under this paragraph shall not be considered a final order from which an appeal may be taken.

Pa. Const. art. V, § 18(d)(2).

2. From January 1, 2018, to the present, Judge Brumbach has served continuously as a Municipal Court Judge for Philadelphia County, Pennsylvania.
3. Contemporaneously with the filing of this Petition, Board Counsel is filing a Board Complaint against Judge Brumbach, alleging nine counts of judicial misconduct. A copy of the Board Complaint is attached hereto, made a part hereof and incorporated herein by reference as though set forth in full. See Attachment "A" (Board Complaint).

4. Due to the serious nature of the alleged misconduct, the President Judge of the Philadelphia Municipal Court lacks confidence in Judge Brumbach's integrity to the extent that the President Judge has assigned Judge Brumbach to administrative duties thereby effectively taking away all judicial duties since January 10, 2022 to the present.
5. The allegations contained within the Board Complaint against Judge Brumbach undermine both public confidence in the judiciary and the reputation of the judiciary. If Judge Brumbach is permitted to perform any judicial duties during the pendency of the Board Complaint, the public's confidence in the judiciary will continue to erode.

WHEREFORE, it is respectfully requested that this Honorable Court enter an interim order suspending Judge Brumbach without pay pending disposition of the Board Complaint filed against her and to grant such other relief as may be deemed appropriate.

Respectfully submitted,

Interim Chief Counsel

COURT OF JUDICIAL DISCIPLINE

IN RE:

Judge Marissa J. Brumbach	:
Municipal Court Judge	:	2 JD 2022
1st Judicial District	:
Philadelphia County	:

COMPLAINT

AND NOW, this 14th day of December, 2022, comes the Judicial Conduct Board of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania (Board) and files this Board Complaint against the Honorable Judge Marissa J. Brumbach, Municipal Court Judge for the 1st Judicial District, Philadelphia County, Pennsylvania, alleging that Judge Brumbach has violated the Code of Judicial Conduct and the Constitution of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, as more specifically delineated herein.

FACTUAL ALLEGATIONS

1. Article V, § 18 of the Constitution of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania grants the Board authority to determine whether there is probable cause to file formal charges, and, when it concludes probable cause exists, to file formal charges against a justice, judge, or justice of the peace for proscribed conduct and to present the case in support of such charges before the Court of Judicial Discipline.
2. From January 1, 2018, to the present, Judge Brumbach has served continuously as a Municipal Court Judge for Philadelphia County, Pennsylvania.
3. By email dated November 10, 2021, Judge Brumbach informed the President Judge of the Philadelphia Municipal Court that she would be “attending an event in Florida on January 7, 2022, and unable to preside that day.”

4. The President Judge did not approve Judge Brumbach's request for leave on January 7, 2022.
5. During the week of January 3 through 7, 2022, Judge Brumbach was scheduled to preside over traffic citation hearings in the Philadelphia Municipal Court.
6. There were 95 traffic citation hearings scheduled to be heard by Judge Brumbach on January 7, 2022.
7. The 95 traffic citation hearings were divided into three groups and scheduled to be heard at 9:00 a.m., 1 p.m. and 2:30 p.m. on January 7, 2022.
8. On January 4 or 5, 2022, Judge Brumbach asked a court officer to deliver the files scheduled to be heard by her on January 7, 2022, to the Assistant District Attorney (ADA) working in her courtroom.
9. Per Judge Brumbach's instructions, the court officer gave the files for the 95 citations scheduled to be heard on January 7, 2022, to the ADA and told him that Judge Brumbach wanted him to review the cases to determine if he was recommending that any of the traffic citations were to be withdrawn.
10. The ADA complied with the request and recommended that 17 of the 95 traffic citations scheduled to be heard on January 7, 2022, be withdrawn.
11. The following day, Judge Brumbach asked the same court officer to retrieve the January 7, 2022, traffic citation files and deliver them to her.
12. The court officer complied with Judge Brumbach's request.
13. On January 6, 2022, at 9:31 a.m., Judge Brumbach sent an email to the President Judge of the Philadelphia Municipal Court stating, in relevant part:

Since I have not heard from you regarding coverage and I am aware you are experiencing coverage issues across the Municipal Court with other judges, I have prepared the files for tomorrow after the Assistant District Attorney reviewed them. As such, at least 95% of the files will have been completed by me without the necessity of coverage. If court remains open tomorrow with the impending snow forecast and anyone shows up, my staff and the court staff know what to do.

14. Upon receipt of the January 6, 2022 email from Judge Brumbach, the President Judge spoke to the Administrative Judge of the Philadelphia Municipal Court about the matter.
15. That same day, the Administrative Judge spoke with Judge Brumbach about the 95 traffic citations scheduled for hearings on January 7, 2022, and her earlier email to the President Judge.
16. While speaking with the Administrative Judge, Judge Brumbach denied adjudicating the 95 traffic citations scheduled for hearings on January 7, 2022, and said that she had merely marked them with what she thought the outcome should be.
17. During the afternoon of January 6, 2022, the President Judge obtained the 95 traffic citation files that were scheduled to be heard by Judge Brumbach on January 7, 2022.
18. Upon review of the traffic citations contained in each of the 95 files it was determined that although each citation was scheduled to be heard on January 7, 2022, and each defendant had been so notified, Judge Brumbach had nonetheless adjudicated most of the citations prior to the scheduled hearing date.
19. The January 6, 2022 review of the 95 traffic citations revealed that they were marked as follows:
 - a. 28 citations were marked "Guilty in Absentia";
 - b. 30 citations were marked "Not Guilty in Absentia";

c. 17 citations were marked "Withdrawn"; and

d. 20 citations were adjudicated but then scribbled on in a manner indicating that the adjudication had been vacated.

Copies of the 95 traffic citations as described above are attached hereto as "Exhibit 1" through "Exhibit 95", made a part hereof, and incorporated herein by reference as though set forth in full.

20. Each of the 95 traffic citations examined by the President Judge bore the initials of Judge Brumbach, handwritten in ink on the line labeled "Original Signature of Judge/Hearing Officer."
21. The manner in which the 95 traffic citations were marked was identical to the way traffic citations are marked when a Philadelphia Municipal Court Judge presides over traffic hearings on the day the hearing is scheduled, i.e., the traffic citations looked like any traffic citation would look following a properly conducted hearing on the day the hearing is actually scheduled.
22. The President Judge took possession and control of the 95 traffic citations and did not permit the adjudications as written by Judge Brumbach to be entered into the record.
23. It was later learned that Judge Brumbach planned to be in Florida on January 7, 2022 and intended to place a telephone call to her court staff at the conclusion of each of the three court sessions on January 7, 2022.
24. During each of the three aforementioned telephone calls, Judge Brumbach intended to instruct her staff to docket and record the adjudications she had previously placed on each of the traffic citations for each of the traffic citations that had been scheduled to be heard during the court session that had just concluded.

25. Judge Brumbach planned to instruct her staff to reschedule any citations for which the defendant appeared on January 7, 2022 and requested a hearing or a continuance.
26. Judge Brumbach was in Florida on January 7, 2022.
27. The Philadelphia Municipal Court was closed on January 7, 2022, due to a snow emergency.
28. On Sunday, January 9, 2022, the President informed Judge Brumbach via email that she was "not assigned to a Traffic Courtroom on Monday January 10th."
29. On the morning of January 10, 2022, Judge Brumbach attempted to obtain the 95 traffic citation files telling a court employee that the files were "incomplete."
30. Despite her efforts to obtain the 95 traffic citation files, Judge Brumbach was denied access to them.
31. Since January 10, 2022, Judge Brumbach has been assigned to administrative duties only.
