The new photograph, featuring all seven justices of the Court, was taken by Pittsburgh-based photographer Jen Barker Worley in the Supreme Court Courtroom in Pittsburgh.

Established in 1722, the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania is the oldest appellate court in the country and has played an important role in the history of the Commonwealth. As the state's highest court, the seven justices make the final decisions interpreting Pennsylvania's laws and Constitution, have full administrative authority over Pennsylvania's judicial system and hear cases involving issues of immediate public importance arising in any court in the Commonwealth.
