INTEREST OF AMICI CURIAE

The Department of State and the Secretary of the Commonwealth, Pennsylvania's Chief Election Official, respectfully submit this amicus brief to address certain issues raised in this appeal.¹ Among other obligations, the Secretary is required to prescribe the form of the declaration that appears on mail-ballot envelopes, and all counties are required to use that declaration. See 25 P.S. §§ 3146.4, 3150.14(b). Similarly, the Secretary has broad authority to prescribe the form of the return envelope that carries the declaration, as well as the form of the enclosed instructions. See id. §§ 3146.4, 3150.14(b) & (c). The Secretary has used this authority to redesign mail ballot materials to reduce the frequency of inadvertent voter errors, including dating errors. Despite these efforts, thousands of voters in each election continue to omit the declaration date or write an “incorrect” date.

¹ This brief was not authored or paid for, in whole or in part, by any person or entity other than amici and their counsel.

DISCUSSION

I. The declaration date serves no purpose under the Election Code.

A. The declaration date has not served a purpose since 1968.

The handwritten declaration date once served a purpose—but no longer does. The declaration date was first required during an era when the deadline for a voter to complete an absentee ballot was earlier than the deadline for election officials to receive that ballot. Declaration dates confirmed that a ballot was completed on time, even if not received until a few days later. But the handwritten date was made irrelevant in 1968, when the General Assembly aligned the deadlines to complete and to receive absentee ballots—a feature of the Election Code that remains unchanged today. The history of the Election Code confirms that declaration dates are a relic of the past that play no role in the administration of Pennsylvania’s elections today:

1937. When the Code was first enacted, only some active military members could vote absentee. Act of June 3, 1937, P.L. 1333, No. 320, §§ 1327–1330 (attached as an Exhibit, at 9–11). Voters completed absentee ballots on or before Election Day, id. § 1329 (Ex. at 10), and placed the ballot in an envelope printed with “the affidavit of the [voter], together with the jurat of the officer in whose presence the ballot is marked and before whom the affidavit is made,” id. § 1328 (Ex. at 9–10). Neither the affidavit nor jurat had to be dated. Id. § 1329 (Ex. at 10).

County boards canvassed all absentee ballots received prior to completion of computation. Id. § 1330 (Ex. at 11). During canvassing, county boards were required to “compare the signature of such absent voter with his signature upon any register or other record in their possession.” Id. § 1330 (Ex. at 10–11). If a county board was “satisfied that the signatures correspond and that the affidavit and jurat are sufficient,” it was to process the ballot. Id. (Ex. at 10).

1941. When the General Assembly amended the Code in 1941, it retained the direction that voters must complete their absentee ballot on or before Election Day, and instructed county boards to canvass ballots received by the second Friday after Election Day. Act of Aug. 1, 1941, P.L. 672, No. 273, § 4 (amending Sections 1303 and 1306 of the Code) (Ex. at 17–18). The General Assembly also added a new requirement that county boards “set aside” during canvassing any ballot with a return envelope that “bear[s] a postmark later than the date of the particular Election Day involved.” Id. § 4 (amending what was then Section 1307 of the Code)

(Ex. at 18–19). After setting aside those untimely ballots, county boards were to review whether the “affidavit and jurat are sufficient.” Id. (Ex. at 19).

1945. The General Assembly added language stating that the voter’s jurat “shall be ... dated.” Act of Mar. 9, 1945, P.L. 29, No. 17, § 10 (amending Section 1306 of the Code, 25 P.S. § 3146.6) (Ex. at 27–28). Voters still had to complete the absentee ballot on or before Election Day, id. (Ex. at 27), and election officials could count a ballot if received by a certain date after Election Day, id. § 10 (amending what was then Section 1307 of the Code) (Ex. at 28). Consistent with the new dating instruction to voters, counties were specifically directed to “set aside” all ballots in which the “jurat bears a date later than the date of the election.” Id. § 10 (amending what was then Section 1307 of the Code) (Ex. at 28–29). The written date, then, replaced the postmark as the necessary evidence a ballot was timely completed. After setting aside ballots based on the jurat date, counties were to review the remaining ballots to determine whether “the affidavit and jurat are sufficient.” Id. (Ex. at 29).

1963. Amendments in 1963 consolidated civilian and military absentee procedures and replaced the separate affidavit and jurat with the single declaration in use today. Act of Aug. 13, 1963, P.L. 707, No. 379, § 22 (amending Section 1304 of the Code, 25 P.S. § 3146.4) (Ex. at 75–76). The previous instruction to date the jurat became an instruction that the “elector shall ... fill out, date and sign the declaration printed on [the outer ballot-return] envelope.” Id. § 22 (amending Section 1306 of the Code, 25 P.S. § 3146.6) (Ex. at 77–78). Voters still had to mark the ballot on or before Election Day, id., and it would be counted if received before the second Friday after Election Day, id. § 24 (amending Section 1308 of the Code, 25 P.S. § 3146.8) (Ex. at 82). The Code’s canvassing section was amended to instruct counties to set aside ballots returned with declarations bearing a date after Election Day. Id. After setting aside ballots based on the declaration date, counties were to review whether the “declaration is sufficient.” Id. (Ex. at 83).

1968. The General Assembly aligned, for the first time, the deadline for absentee voters to complete their ballot and the deadline for county boards to receive those ballots, making both 5 p.m. the Friday before Election Day. Act of Dec. 11, 1968, P.L. 1183, No. 375, § 8, (amending Section 1306 of the Code, 25 P.S. § 3146.6, and Section 1308 of the Code, 25 P.S. § 3146.8) (Ex. at 98, 102). After creating a single deadline, the General Assembly removed the requirement that counties set aside ballots based on their review of the date appearing on the ballot-return declaration. Id. In all other ways—including reviewing the declaration for sufficiency—the Code was materially unchanged.

Present. The alignment of the deadline for election officials to receive a mail ballot and the deadline for voters to complete a mail ballot remains today. Act 77 gave all registered, qualified voters the option to vote by mail. In doing so, it adopted wholesale the pre-existing text and procedures for absentee voting and applied them to mail-in voting, including the direction that voters shall “fill out, date and sign” the declaration. Act of Oct. 31, 2019, P.L. 552, No. 77 (“Act 77”), §§ 8, 6. The General Assembly also retained the uniform deadlines for a voter to complete a mail ballot and for a county to receive that ballot, which is currently 8 p.m. on Election Day. Id.; 25 P.S. §§ 3146.6 (deadline to vote absentee ballot), 3150.16 (deadline to vote mail-in ballot), 3146.8 (deadline to receive absentee and mail-in ballot). The declaration date, therefore, is merely a relic of a nearly century-old statute.

B. Election officials do not use the handwritten date for any purpose.

Consistent with this legislative genealogy, no county election official today uses the handwritten date for any purpose—other than to exclude the votes of eligible, legal voters based on errors and omissions. Throughout the litigation over this issue, not a single board member or election official has said anything to the contrary. And no county board member or county election official has chosen to participate in this litigation to argue that ballots with missing or erroneous handwritten dates should be excluded. Those that are participating—either as parties or amici—have all said the same thing: the handwritten date serves no role in the administration of Pennsylvania’s elections.

Faced with this clear evidence, the RNC and its amici instead offer speculation as to what the date might do. But even their hypotheticals are contradicted by the facts and the law.

1. Contrary to the claims of both the RNC and the Office of Attorney General (on behalf of the Commonwealth as amicus), the handwritten date is not a “useful backstop” to the SURE System or the steps that county officials take to record when ballots are received.

Contra RNC Br. at 42; OAG Br. at 23–24. No election official would, or even could, use it for that purpose.

The reason the date serves no purpose is not because of the SURE System; it is because of the Election Code. The Election Code requires that a mail ballot be both filled out by the voter on time and received by the county on time. But, since 1968, a ballot that is received on time is, by definition, filled out on time. See supra Part I.A. Counties therefore ensure that they have records of whether ballots were received before the deadline by 1) date-stamping each ballot envelope; 2) scanning each ballot envelope, which enters the return date in the SURE System; and 3) keeping ballots received before the deadline separate from those received afterwards.

But a ballot that was filled out on time is not necessarily received on time—and when a timely completed ballot arrives late, the received-by deadline controls and the ballot is not counted. 25 P.S. § 3146.8(g)(ii). So if all of the above systems broke down and the county truly had no record of when a mail ballot was received, it could not count that ballot under the Election Code.² Id. The Commonwealth’s claim that, under such a scenario, a county could use the handwritten date to “swiftly and faithfully determine which ballots comply with the Election Code the old-fashioned way,” OAG Br. at 24, is thus false.³ If a county were to use the handwritten date in this way, it would invariably count large numbers of unlawful, late-arriving ballots—something that presumably neither the Commonwealth nor the RNC would countenance.

Finally, even if it were conceivable that a county could, in a future election, somehow lose all records of when mail ballots were received—and if, contrary to the Election Code, the handwritten date were useful under such a scenario—there would still be no justification for invalidating undated ballots now. No matter what happens in this case, the return envelope will contain a space for the date; the Department and counties will direct voters to fill it in; and the vast majority will do so. Neither the Commonwealth nor the RNC explains why preserving this speculative use of the handwritten date for some future election disaster requires throwing out thousands of otherwise lawful ballots in every election until that scenario arrives.

³ Without explanation, the Commonwealth posits that the handwritten date could be relevant if “disruptions to the mail itself resulted in (i) ballots going missing or (ii) a wide discrepancy between when a ballot is completed and when it is received.” OAG Br. 24. But if a ballot is received late, it does not count—period. It makes no difference whether the lateness was caused by mail disruptions or anything else.

2. The RNC's claim that throwing out ballots based on dating errors "serves the Commonwealth's interest in solemnity" is every bit as specious. See RNC Br. at 42. The General Assembly plainly did not see it that way: the act of signing the declaration affirming eligibility to vote, by itself, subjects an individual to criminal penalties if the attestation is knowingly false. See 25 P.S. §§ 3146.4, 3150.14, 3553. A voter who signs a false declaration cannot escape punishment by omitting the date.

Tellingly, the RNC cannot find a single decision supporting its claim that the act of dating a document carries any particular additional importance. Instead, it relies on a Commonwealth Court dissent as well as a handful of cases that discuss the importance of signing documents, but not dating them. See RNC Br. at 42–43 (citing cases). And the suggestion that voters will better "contemplate their choices" and "reach considered decisions about their government and laws” if ballots with inadvertent envelope-dating errors are set aside, see id., is nonsense.

3. The RNC cites a criminal complaint from Lancaster County as supposed evidence that the date serves an anti-fraud function, RNC Br. at 43–44, but Lancaster election officials have repeatedly made clear that the date had no relevance to detecting that the ballot at issue was invalid.⁴ And the RNC greatly exaggerates the facts of the case: there is no evidence, for instance, that the handwritten date “was used to secure a guilty plea” in the case. Contra RNC Br. at 44.

⁴ In federal litigation addressing the date requirement, the judge summarized the facts of this case as follows:

Record evidence from the Board’s own Rule 30(b)(6) designee indicates that the fraudulent ballot was first detected by way of the SURE system and Department of Health records, not by review of the date on the return envelope. The County Board acknowledges that it recognized that the ballot was invalid as soon as it was scanned into the SURE system because the voter had been removed from the rolls due to her death. Importantly, the Lancaster County Board admits that an outer envelope that is missing a hand-written date is no reason to suspect voter fraud.

Eakin v. Adams County Board of Elections, No. 22-340, 2025 WL 957525, at *8 (W.D. Pa. Mar. 31, 2025) (cleaned up).

And even if the RNC were correct about the facts of the case, it would not justify requiring counties to throw out ballots based on dating errors. Again, election officials will still instruct voters to date the declaration regardless of what happens in this case, and most voters will do so. Affirming the Commonwealth Court would simply tell counties they could not reject ballots based on missing or incorrect declaration dates. Bonner v. Chapman, 298 A.3d 153, 168 (Pa. Cmwlth. 2023).

II. Not counting undated and wrongly dated ballots imposes unacceptable burdens on voters and election officials.

In every election since Ball v. Chapman, 289 A.3d 1 (Pa. 2023), thousands of timely received ballots from qualified voters have been set aside because the voter made a mistake, either by forgetting to write the date or by writing the wrong date. This burden does not fall equally across all groups of voters. Rather, in every election in which the relevant data has been analyzed, the rejection rate based on dating errors among older voters has been meaningfully higher than that among younger voters.

For instance, in the 2024 general election, the rejection rate for dating errors among mail voters aged 70 and over was 1.6 times the rejection rate among voters aged 50 and under. And the rejection rate for voters 80 and over was more than double that among voters aged 50 and under.

The chart below shows the rejection rate in the 2024 general election of mail ballots due to dating issues by age of the voter:

This effect is compounded by the fact that more older voters vote by mail than younger voters do. The number of voters 50 years and older who voted by mail was nearly double that of voters under 50 years old

(678,073 voters aged 50 and under voted by mail in last year's general election, while 1,300,377 voters aged 50 and over did). As a result, in the 2024 general election, the total number of mail ballots of voters 50 years and older that were rejected for declaration date issues (3,384 ballots rejected) was more than 2.5 times that of voters aged 50 and under (1,344 ballots rejected).

On the other hand, rejecting ballots for dating errors does not appear to strongly disfavor one political party over another. For the 2024 general election, data shows that 2,303 ballots from registered Democrats were rejected for date errors (roughly .21% of all mail ballots returned by registered Democrats), 1,852 ballots from registered Republicans were rejected (roughly .29% of all mail ballots returned from registered Republicans), and 574 ballots from voters not registered with either major party were rejected (roughly .24% of all mail ballots returned by those voters).

Requiring counties to reject ballots with missing or incorrect handwritten dates burdens another group: county election officials. Since Ball, election officials have been required to review every ballot envelope to determine whether the date is “correct”—a time-consuming and laborious process. And, as the Commonwealth acknowledges, “county boards can and do arrive at different conclusions regarding what constitutes an incorrect date.” OAG Br. at 6 n.5. Indeed, the Commonwealth recognizes that reversing the Commonwealth Court here will invariably lead to litigation over “future as-applied determinations regarding incorrectly dated ballots.” Id. So courts, too, will be burdened—and for no purpose other than to decide which types of inadvertent dating mistakes should rob voters of their votes.⁶

Finally, given that “any number of reasonable disputes may arise about whether a date is sufficient,” OAG Br. at 6, n.5, the requirement to invalidate ballots with incorrect dates has invariably led to “a patchwork of unwritten and arbitrary rules that will have some defective ballots counted and others discarded, depending on the county in which a voter resides,” In Re 2,349 Ballots in 2020 Gen. Election, 241 A.3d 694 (Pa. Cmwlth. 2020) (Brobson, J.), rev’d sub nom. In re Canvass of Absentee & Mail-in Ballots of Nov. 3, 2020 Gen. Election, 241 A.3d 1058 (Pa. 2020).

⁶ It bears repeating that all timely received ballots were necessarily filled out on time, even if the date was deemed “incorrect.” A voter who fills out and hand-delivers her ballot on October 15 but inadvertently writes “11/15” on the envelope has still complied with all of the deadlines in the Election Code, even though her vote may not count under Ball.

This “patchwork system does not guarantee voters an ‘equal’ election[.]”
Id.

III. Under any standard, throwing out ballots with handwritten date errors is unconstitutional.

Invalidating thousands of otherwise legal votes every year based on errors in a handwritten date that serves no purpose under the Election Code violates the Constitution’s guarantee of “free and equal” elections. This conclusion holds regardless of the type of scrutiny employed, because discarding ballots based on meaningless dating errors cannot survive any level of scrutiny. The question at the heart of this case is simply whether rules that do not reasonably further orderly and honest elections may be enforced by denying a qualified elector her right to vote. Under this Court’s precedents, the answer is no.

The guarantee of free and equal elections contained in Article I, Section 5 of our Constitution is written in “the broadest possible terms,” League of Women Voters v. Commonwealth, 178 A.3d 737, 804 (Pa. 2018), and affords an array of important protections. Its assurance of both the “free exercise of the right of suffrage” and that elections be “free and equal” requires that “all aspects of the electoral process, to the greatest degree possible, be kept open and unrestricted to the voters of our Commonwealth” and that elections be “conducted in a manner which guarantees, to the greatest degree possible, a voter’s right to equal participation in the electoral process for the selection of his or her representatives in government.” Id.

To keep the electoral process open and unrestricted to the greatest degree possible, the Free and Equal Clause strikes “at all regulations of law which shall impair the right of suffrage rather than facilitate or reasonably direct the manner of its exercise.” Id. at 809 (quoting Charles R. Buckalew, An Examination of the Constitution of Pennsylvania. Exhibiting The Derivation and History of Its Several Provisions, Article I at 10 (1883)). This Court has been “consistent over the years,” id., that Section 5 demands, at a minimum, that elections must be “public and open to all qualified electors alike”; that every voter must have “the same right as every other voter”; that every voter must have “the right to cast his ballot and have it honestly counted”; that regulations “of the right to exercise the franchise [may] not deny the franchise itself, or make it so difficult as to amount to a denial”; and that “no constitutional right of the qualified elector [may be] subverted or denied him,” Winston v. Moore, 91 A. 520, 523 (Pa. 1914).

Consistent with these principles, regulations that impair (or outright deny) the right of suffrage but further no interest in ensuring orderly and honest elections impose unreasonable, and thus unconstitutional, burdens. Pennsylvania's election regulations have been tested against this standard for over a century. E.g., Independence Party Nomination, 57 A. 344, 345 (Pa. 1904) (“[The right of suffrage] cannot be denied, qualified, or restricted, and is only subject to such regulation as to the manner of exercise as is necessary for the peaceable and orderly exercise of the same right in other electors.”); see also In re Recount of Ballots Cast in Gen. Election on Nov. 6, 1973, 325 A.2d 303, 308 (Pa. 1974) (“Unreasonable impairment or unnecessary restrictions upon [the right of suffrage] cannot be tolerated.”).

In Appeal of Norwood, for example, this Court held that a ballot marked with a “✓” should be counted, even though the Election Code specifically directed that, “Any ballot marked by any other mark than an (X) in the space provided for that purpose shall be void and not counted.” 116 A.2d 552, 553 (Pa. 1955) (citing 25 P.S. § 3063). Echoing the text of Section 5, the Court noted that “the right of suffrage is the most treasured prerogative of citizenship.” Id. That right can be conditioned on compliance with rules that serve an election interest, such as preserving voter anonymity, but not on compliance with rules that do not. Id. at 554–55.

Similarly, clear statutory language that a ballot must be marked in blue or black ink did not permit rejecting ballots marked in red ink. In re Luzerne Cnty. Return Bd., 290 A.2d 108, 109 (Pa. 1972). The use of a different color ink did not make the ballot identifiable or otherwise interfere with any discernable election-administration interest. Id.

Likewise, in In re Recount, a ballot returned without removal of a pre-printed number was counted despite that text of the Election Code unambiguously stating that “[a]ny ballot deposited in a ballot box ... without having the said number torn off shall be void and shall not be counted.” In re Recount, 325 A.2d at 308 (citing 25 P.S. § 3055). Echoing the text of Section 5, the Court wrote:

[I]t is important to be reminded that the right of suffrage is the most treasured prerogative of citizenship in this nation and this Commonwealth. It is this right that made the American dream distinctive, where men were to be governed not by the state but by themselves. Unreasonable impairment or unnecessary restrictions upon this right cannot be tolerated whether the contest be for the selection of the President of the United States or the district committeeman.

Id. So, while legislation that furthers actual election aims—such as voter anonymity, the integrity of the vote, and timely resolution of an election, to name a few—is permissible and necessary, “regulatory measures must not ever be permitted to unduly infringe upon the exercise of the right to vote.” Id. at 309. Such measures must not “amount to an unreasonable encroachment upon the franchise and the legislative enactment should not be interpreted to require such a result.” Id.

The RNC brushes these decisions away as statutory interpretation cases and claims that the Constitution simply has no role to play where so-called “neutral ballot-casting rules” are involved. See RNC Br. at 23–27. But in Norwood, In re Luzerne, and In re Recount, this Court confronted statutory language that was unambiguous. Indeed, in Norwood and In re Recount, the language provided that the ballots at issue were “void” and “shall not be counted.” And in each, this Supreme Court explained that (notwithstanding that statutory text) non-compliance with unambiguous voting rules cannot be used to impair the right of suffrage if the voting rule is divorced from any election-related purpose.

In this case, the statutory language is far less clear: as explained above, in 1968 the legislature specifically removed the provision requiring counties to set aside ballots with dating errors. This Court has consistently interpreted ambiguity or silence in the Election Code to avoid needlessly depriving eligible voters of the franchise. Shambach v. Bickart, 845 A.3d 793, 798 (Pa. 2004); In re Canvass of Absentee Ballots of Nov. 4, 2003 General Election, 843 A.3d 1223, 1231 (Pa. 2004); Appeal of James, 105 A.2d 64, 65–66 (Pa. 1954); Appeal of McCaffery, 11 A.2d 893, 895–96 (Pa. 1940). This statutory-interpretation principle derives from the objectives that animate the Free and Equal Clause: “[A]n honest and just election” that ascertains “the intention of the voter.” Appeal of James, 105 A.2d at 65. To achieve that end, election laws must be interpreted “in favor of the right to vote” and “statutes tending to limit the citizen in his exercise of the right of suffrage should be liberally construed in his favor.” Id. (quoting 29 C.J.S. Elections, § 7). Indeed, Pennsylvania’s long-minted rule of statutory interpretation follows from the “constitutionally protected right to an equal, nondiscriminatory electoral process.” Chapman v. Berks Cnty. Bd. of Elections, No. 355 M.D. 2022, 2022 WL 4100998, at *13 (Pa. Cmwlt. Aug. 19, 2022).

Although Pennsylvania’s strong constitutional protections of the right to vote have no equally forceful federal counterpart, see League of Women Voters, 178 A.3d at 804, the U.S. Constitution imposes similar limits. It, too, demands that burdens on voting rights be justified by sufficient regulatory interests. See, e.g., Burdick v. Takushi, 504 U.S. 428, 434 (1992); see also Pa. Democratic Party v. Boockvar, 238 A.3d 345, 384–85 (Pa. 2020 (comparing protections under Pennsylvania Constitution to those described in Burdick); Banfield v. Cortes, 110 A.3d 155, 177 (Pa. 2015) (same). And just today, a federal district court concluded—at summary judgment and after factual development—that discarding votes based on dating errors violates the U.S. Constitution because “there is no evidence that the date requirement serves any state interest,” such that “even a slight burden on voting rights cannot withstand constitutional scrutiny.” Eakin v. Adams County Board of Elections, No. 22-340, 2025 WL 957525, at *9 (W.D. Pa. Mar. 31, 2025).

Likewise, weighing a regulation’s purpose against the burdens imposed on the right to vote is a common protection in states that are constitutionally compelled to keep their elections “free and equal” (or even just “free” or “free and open”) and that shield voters from interference with “the free exercise of the right of suffrage.” E.g., Montana Democratic Party v. Jacobsen, 545 P.3d 1074, 1089–93 (Mt. 2024) (citing Mont. Const. art. II, § 13); League of Women Voters of Delaware, Inc. v. Dep’t of Elections, 250 A.3d 922, 934–36 (Del. Ch. 2020) (citing Del. Const. art. I, § 3); Chelsea Collaborative, Inc. v. Sec’y of Commonwealth, 100 N.E.3d 326, 330–32 & n.17 (Mass. 2018) (citing Mass. Const. Part I, art. IX); Crum v. Dunn, 390 P.3d 971, 973–74 (N.M. 2017) (citing N.M. Const. art. II, § 8); Guare v. New Hampshire, 117 A.3d 731, 735–36 (N.H. 2015) (citing N.H. Const. Part. 1, art. XI); Meyer v. Lamm, 846 P.2d 862, 874–76 (Colo. 1993); Craig v. Peterson, 233 N.E.2d 345, 348 (Ill. 1968) (citing what is now Ill. Const. Art. III, § 3).

Protecting voting rights from unreasonable regulations is commonplace even among states with less muscular protections than those enshrined in the Pennsylvania Constitution. State ex rel. Frederick v. Zimmerman, 37 N.W.2d 473, 480 (Wisc. 1949) (“Legislation regulating the exercise of the elective franchise ... must be reasonable.”); State v. Erickson, 137 N.W. 385, 386 (Minn. 1912) (holding election regulation “must be reasonable, uniform, and impartial; they must not be such as to defeat indirectly the constitutional rights of an elector or unnecessarily obstruct the exercise thereof”); see also In re Request for Advisory Opinion Regarding Constitutionality of 2005 PA 71, 740 N.W.2d 444, 463 (Mich. 2007); Burr v. Voorhis, 128 N.E. 220, 221–22 (N.Y. 1920).

The principle at issue here—rules that do not reasonably further an interest in orderly and honest elections may not be used to deny the franchise—is deeply rooted in this Court’s jurisprudence, federal law, and in the law of other states. This Court should reaffirm this principle and hold that errors in complying with a requirement that serves no purpose under the Election Code may not be used to deny Pennsylvania citizens the right to vote.⁷

IV. Affirming the relief granted does not invalidate Act 77.

A. The Commonwealth Court’s decision does not implicate Act 77 or its severability provision.

The Commonwealth Court held that rejecting mail ballots with undated or incorrectly dated declaration envelopes “violates the free and equal elections clause of the Pennsylvania Constitution.” Baxter v.

Philadelphia Bd. of Elections, 329 A.3d 483, 2024 WL 4614689 at *19 (Pa. Cmwlth. 2024). This decision did not implicate, much less invalidate, any provision of Act 77, because the Election Code provision addressing the acceptance or rejection of mail ballots is 25 P.S. § 3146.8, which was not enacted as part of Act 77. Contra RNC Br. at 53. And even if the Commonwealth Court’s judgment did implicate parts of the Election Code amended under Act 77, it is the Election Code’s severability clause, rather than Act 77’s non-severability clause, that governs.

1. Since its enactment in 1937, the Election Code has provided for some form of voting by mail. Throughout this time, the Code has consistently placed instructions to voters on how to complete a mail ballot in separate sections from instructions to election officials on how to count those ballots. These latter sections have always instructed counties to determine whether a voter’s completion of the mail-ballot declaration is “sufficient,” 25 P.S. § 3146.8(g)(3), such that the ballot “shall be counted and included with the returns” that are sent to the Secretary, id. § 3146.8(g)(4). See supra Part I.A.

Act 77 created the procedures for voters to submit a no-excuse mail ballot. Act 77, § 8. In doing so, the General Assembly adopted wholesale the pre-existing absentee voting legislative text and procedures—including copying over the dating requirement. Id., §§ 6, 8. But Act 77 did not create a new canvassing section for these new mail ballots. Instead, it directed county boards to canvass mail-in ballots using the long-established canvassing procedures for absentee ballots found in § 3146.8. See Act 77, § 7 (amending Section 1308 of the Code).

This canvassing section, § 3146.8, was first added to the Election Code in 1951. Act of Mar. 6, 1951, P.L. 3, No. 1, § 5 (Ex. at 41–42). And the key statutory text—that a declaration must be “sufficient” for a ballot to be counted—has been in the Election Code since 1937. Supra Part I.A.

This separation—between statutory instructions for voters and statutory instructions for election officials—matters because the Commonwealth Court did not strike the dating requirement from 25 P.S. § 3146.6 and § 3150.16. Nor did the court hold that voters cannot or should not handwrite a date. Instead, the Commonwealth Court ordered a county board of elections to count mail ballots that “were rejected due to outer envelope dating errors.” Baxter, 2024 WL 4614689, at *19. This is a determination about “the consequence of an elector not handwriting a date on the declaration,” which is governed by § 3146.8. See Bonner, 298 A.3d at 165 (emphasis added).

And this makes sense. County boards cannot control the decisions made by voters pursuant to 25 P.S. § 3146.6 and § 3150.16. But county boards do control the consequences of voter decisions during canvassing, which ultimately determines what ballots “shall be counted and included with the returns” that are sent to the Secretary. Id. § 3146.8(g)(4). The Commonwealth Court held that the statutorily required consequence that counties must impose during canvassing when confronted with a missing or incorrect declaration date—rejecting a ballot, Ball, 289 A.3d at 28—violates the Free and Equal Elections Clause. Because this ruling relates to the process governed under § 3146.8(g)(4) it does not implicate, let alone invalidate, any provision added by Act 77.

2. Even if the Court finds that the Commonwealth Court’s judgment implicates a portion of the Election Code amended under Act 77, Act 77’s non-severability provision still does not apply. Instead, the severability provision of the Election Code itself, see 25 P.S. § 2603(a), governs the result.

In the Election Code’s severability provision, the General Assembly declared that the “provisions of this act are severable, and if any article, section or clause of this act, or part thereof, is held to be unconstitutional, the decision shall not be construed to affect or invalidate any other provisions of this act, or the act as a whole.” Id.

Application of the Code’s severability clause here is proper because Act 77 is an amendatory statute. It added some new provisions to the Election Code and modified others. Amendatory statutes do not exist in their own right. When an amendatory statute is passed, “the amendment shall be construed as merging into the original, become a part thereof, and replace the part amended, and the remainder of the original statute and the amendment shall be read together and viewed as one statute passed at one time.” 1 Pa.C.S. § 1953. In other words, once an amendatory statute is enacted, it ceases to have an independent identity, and there is nothing left to be invalidated under a non-severability clause.⁸

Application of the Election Code’s severability clause is also prudent. Sections of the Election Code newly added under Act 77, as well as pre-existing sections that Act 77 modified, have been subject to further amendments four times since Act 77 was passed. See Act of Nov. 27, 2019, P.L. 673, No. 94; Act of Mar. 27, 2020, P.L. 41, No. 12; Act of Jul. 11, 2022, P.L. 745, No. 66; Act of Jul. 11, 2022, P.L. 1577, No. 88. Carving out just the parts of the Election Code that were added or modified through Act 77 would be a nearly impossible task at this stage and would render significant parts of the Election Code incoherent.

B. The dating requirement is severable under governing standards.

Even if this Court were to conclude that ruling for Petitioners necessitates some severability review under Act 77, there is still no basis for striking all of Act 77. Doing so would be inconsistent with this Court’s precedent and the applicable severability standard.

For the 2020 general election, this Court declined to enforce the rule that county boards of elections could canvass only mail ballots returned by 8 p.m. on Election Day. Pa. Democratic Party, 238 A.3d at 370–72. The 8 p.m. deadline was part of Act 77’s amendments to the Election Code, Act 77, § 7, and the Republican Party of Pennsylvania argued, as it does here, that the Court's order should trigger the non-severability provision, Pa. Democratic Party, 238 A.3d at 367. But this Court did not agree and, of course, did not invalidate all of Act 77.

Indeed, Justice Donahue, joined by Chief Justice Saylor and Justice Mundy, specifically questioned whether Act 77's non-severability provision was enforceable at all and whether its "boilerplate" language could govern the Court's review of any severability questions. Id. at 397 n.4 (Donahue, J., concurring and dissenting).

Justice Donahue's concurrence comports with the well-established law of this Commonwealth that non-severability provisions are not "inexorable commands," but instead "a rule of construction." Stilp v. Commonwealth, 905 A.2d 918, 972 (Pa. 2006). This rule is governed by the settled common law principle, codified though the Statutory Construction Act, that "provisions of every statute shall be severable" except when "the valid provisions of the statute are so essentially and inseparably connected with, and so depend upon, the void provision or application, that it cannot be presumed the General Assembly would have enacted the remaining valid provisions without the void one" or when "the remaining valid provisions, standing alone, are incomplete and are incapable of being executed in accordance with the legislative intent.” 1 Pa.C.S. § 1925.

Section 1925’s standard is “specific [and] cogent,” and “both emphasizes the logical and essential interrelationship of the void and valid provisions, and also recognizes the essential role of the Judiciary in undertaking the required analysis.” Stilp, 905 A.2d at 970. By comparison, the “boilerplate” non-severability clause that the Supreme Court determined in Stilp was non-binding—which is no different than the non-severability provision found in Act 77, compare id. at 973 (quoting the Act of July 7, 2005, P.L. 201, No. 44, § 6) with Act 77, § 11—sets forth no standard.

Applying Section 1925, there is no doubt the remainder of Act 77 can stand—and fully fulfill its purpose—if mail ballots returned with declaration-date errors are canvassed and counted.

Act 77 was a sea change to Pennsylvania’s elections. Among other things, it eliminated straight-ticket voting, see Act 77, § 6; created no-excuse mail-in voting, id. § 8; changed voting machine requirements, id. § 3; moved the voter registration deadline from 30 to 15 days before an election, id. § 4; and reorganized the pay structure for poll workers, id. § 3.

It is absurd to think that the legislature intended to invalidate the entirety of Act 77—and to nullify “years of careful [legislative] consideration and debate ... on the reform and modernization of elections in Pennsylvania,” McLinko, 279 A.3d at 543—because counties are constitutionally required to count ballots with meaningless handwritten errors. Contra RNC Br. at 51. In 1945, the General Assembly first included the “shall ... be dated” instruction, and in 1963 it added the specific “shall ... date” language still used today. Supra at 4. In Act 77, the General Assembly copied this language wholesale when enacting no-excuse mail-in voting. Act 77, § 8 (Section 1306-D of the Code, 25 P.S. § 3150.16). And it merely re-numbered the dating requirement for absentee ballots. Id. § 6 (amending Section 1306 of the Code, 25 P.S. § 3146.6). There is no evidence that continued enforcement of the dating requirement was a “crucial element in the political compromise that led to Act 77’s passage.” Cf. RNC Br. at 51. Indeed, it is unconstitutional to reject ballots for dating errors because the date is now a pointless vestige of a different era, it is also true that the dating requirement is not “essentially and inseparably connected with” Act 77.

CONCLUSION

For the reasons set forth above, this Court should affirm the decision of the Commonwealth Court.

ARTICLE XIII

Voting by Persons in Actual Military Service

Section 1301. Qualified Electors in Actual Military Service.—Whenever any of the qualified electors of this Commonwealth shall be in any actual military service, under a requisition from the President of the United States or by the authority of this Commonwealth, and as such, absent from their place of residence on the days appointed by law for holding the general or municipal elections within this State, or on the days for holding special elections to fill vacancies, such electors shall be entitled, at such times, to exercise the right of suffrage, as fully as if they were present at their usual places of election, in the manner prescribed in this article and, whether at the time of voting, such electors shall be within the limits of this State or not; and the right of voting shall not be affected by reason of the failure of any elector to have been registered in his place of residence.

Section 1302. Polls to Be Opened in Each Military Unit; Detached Electors.—A poll shall be opened in each military or naval unit, composed in whole or in part of Pennsylvania soldiers, at the quarters of the captain or other officer thereof, and all electors belonging to such unit who shall be within one mile of such quarters, on the day of election, and not prevented by orders of their commanders, or proximity of the enemy, from returning to their unit quarters, shall vote at such poll and at no other place; officers, other than those of a unit, and other electors detached and absent from their units, or in any military or naval hospital, or in any vessel or navy yard, may vote at such other polls as may be most convenient for them; and when there shall be ten or more electors at any place, who shall be unable to attend any unit poll, or their proper place of election as aforesaid, the electors present may open a poll, at such place as they may select, and certify in the poll-book, which shall be a record of the proceedings at said election, substantially in manner and form as hereinafter directed.

Section 1303. Time of Opening and Closing Polls.—The polls shall be opened as early as practicable on said day and remain open at least three hours, and if necessary in the opinion of the election officers, in order to receive the votes of all the electors, they may keep the polls open until seven o'clock P. M. of said day; proclamation thereof shall be made at or before the opening of the polls and one hour before closing them.

Section 1304. Election Officers.—Before opening the poll on the day of election, the electors present at each of the places aforesaid, shall elect viva voce three persons, present at the time, and having the qualifications of electors, for judge and inspectors of said election, and the inspectors so elected shall then appoint two of the persons present, who shall be qualified, to act as clerks of said election; and the judge shall prepare boxes or other suitable receptacles for the ballots.

Section 1305. Oaths of Election Officers.—Before any votes shall be received, said judge, inspectors and clerks shall each take an oath or affirmation that he will perform the duties of judge, inspector or clerk, as the case may be, of said election, according to law, and to the best of his abilities, and that he will studiously endeavor to prevent fraud, deceit or abuse in conducting the same, which oath or affirmation any of the said judges, inspectors or clerks so elected or appointed may administer to each other; and the same shall be in writing, or partly written and partly printed, and signed by said judge, inspectors and clerks, and certified to by the party administering the same, and attached to or entered upon the poll-book, and there signed and certified as aforesaid.

Section 1306. Manner of Election; Challenges.—All elections under this article shall be by official ballots provided in the manner herein prescribed, and the judge and inspectors of elections may, and upon challenge of any elector shall, examine under oath or affirmation the applicant to vote (which oath or affirmation any of said judges or inspectors may administer), in respect to his right to vote, and his qualifications to vote in the particular election district, ward, precinct, city, borough, township or county of this State, in which he claims residence; and before issuing a ballot to any applicant to vote, the judge and inspectors, or majority of them, shall be satisfied that such applicant is a qualified elector of such place. The judge of election shall arrange one or more voting compartments, suitably curtained in which the electors may mark their ballots.

Section 1307. Poll-Books.—Separate poll-books shall be kept, and separate returns made, for the electors of each county; the poll-books shall name the unit and organization and the place, post or hospital, in which said election is held; the county and township, city, borough, ward or election district of each elector shall be indorsed opposite his name on the poll-books, so that there may be a double list of voters.

Section 1308. Ballots.—Ballots for use by persons in military service under the provisions of this article shall be prepared sufficiently in advance by the Secretary of the Commonwealth, and shall be by him distributed through the commissioners hereinafter provided, or in such other manner as he may think proper, to the various military or naval units containing Pennsylvania soldiers entitled to vote at any election. Such ballots shall be in substantially the form prescribed by Article X of this act for ballots to be used at the same elections within this Commonwealth, but in cases where it is, in the opinion of the Secretary of the Commonwealth, not feasible to print on said ballots the names of the various candidates for district, county and local offices, the ballots shall contain blank spaces only under the titles of such offices in which the voters may insert the names of the candidates for whom they desire to vote, and in such cases the Secretary of the Commonwealth shall furnish to the judge of election a sufficient number of printed lists containing the names of all the candidates who have been regularly nominated under the provisions of this act for the use of the electors in preparing their ballots.

Section 1309. Casting of Ballot.—The judge or one of the inspectors shall, upon the application of an elector to vote, pronounce his name audibly, and if no objection is made to him, and the judge and inspectors are satisfied that said elector is a citizen of the United States, and legally entitled, according to the Constitution and laws of this State, to vote at said election, shall issue a ballot to such elector first folding it so that the words printed on the back shall be the only words visible. The elector, after receiving his ballot, shall retire to one of the voting compartments and draw the curtain and shall there prepare his ballot. He shall then fold his ballot without displaying the markings in the same way it was folded when received by him, and he shall then leave the voting compartment and deposit the ballot thus folded in the ballot box or other receptacle therefor, and the clerks shall enter the name of the elector in the poll-book of his county, together with the ward, election district, city, borough, township and county of his residence.

Section 1310. Counting of Votes.—At the close of the polls, the number of voters who have voted shall be counted and set down at the foot of the list of voters, and certified and signed by the judge and inspectors and attested by the clerks.

Section 1311. Manner of Counting Ballots.—After the poll-books are signed, the ballot box shall be opened and the ballots therein contained shall be taken out, one at a time, by the judge, who shall read distinctly while the ballot remains in his hand, the names of the candidates voted for therein for the several offices voted for, and then deliver it to one of the inspectors, who shall examine the same and pass it to the other inspector, who shall place the same in an envelope prepared for the ballots of such count, and carefully preserve the same; the same method shall be pursued as to each ballot taken out, until all the votes are counted.

Section 1312. Rejection of Ballots.—No ballot which is so marked as to be capable of identification shall be counted, and if a ballot is marked for more candidates for any office than the number an elector is entitled to vote for for such office, the same shall not be counted for that office, but shall be counted for all other candidates properly marked.

Section 1313. Tally Lists.—As a check in counting, each clerk shall keep a tally list for each county from which votes shall have been received, which tally list shall constitute a part of the poll-books.

Section 1314. Enumeration of Votes.—After the examination of the ballots shall be completed, the number of votes for each person in the county poll-books, as aforesaid, shall be enumerated under the inspection of the judge and inspectors, and set down in the poll-books.

Section 1315. Form of Poll-Book and Returns.—The form of the poll-books to be used at such elections shall be determined by the Secretary of the Commonwealth, who shall also prescribe the form of return to be made by the election officers in each poll-book of the ballots cast by the electors of the county for which such poll-book is kept.

Section 1316. Disposition of Poll-Books and Returns.—After canvassing the votes in manner aforesaid, the judge shall put in an envelope, one of the poll-books with its tally list and return of each county, together with the ballots of such county, and transmit the same, properly sealed up and directed, through the nearest post office, or by express, as soon as possible thereafter, to the county board of elections of the county in which such electors would have voted if not in the military service aforesaid (being the county for which the poll-book was kept); and the other poll-book of said county, enclosed in an envelope and sealed as aforesaid, and properly directed, shall be delivered to one of the commissioners hereinafter provided for, if such commissioner calls for the same in ten days, and if not so called for, the same shall be transmitted by mail or by express, as* soon as possible thereafter, to the Secretary of the Commonwealth, who shall carefully preserve the same, and on demand of the proper county board, deliver to said county board, under his hand and official seal, a certified copy of the return of votes, so transmitted to and received by him, for said county.

Section 1317. Duties of County Boards.—In the case of any election at which votes are cast by persons in military service, under the provisions of this article, it shall be the duty of each county board of elections to withhold the completion of the computation of the returns of the county until the third Friday after such election, within which period all returns of votes cast by electors of the county in military service, as provided in this article, shall be added to and included in its computation of the returns of such election.

Section 1318. Returns of Federal and State Offices.—In all general elections for Federal and State offices at which votes are cast by persons in the military service, under the provisions of this article, it shall be the duty of the Secretary of the Commonwealth before finally computing and certifying the returns of such elections, to add to the returns received by him from the various county boards of election any returns of the votes cast by persons in the military service received by him under the provisions of this act, which, upon an examination of the returns received from the county boards, clearly appear not to have been added to and included in such returns by the respective county boards.

Section 1319. Contested Elections.—All said elections shall be subject to contest in the manner provided by Article XVII of this act; and in all cases of contested elections, all legal returns which shall have been bona fide forwarded by said judge and inspectors, in the manner hereinbefore prescribed, shall be counted, although the same may not have arrived or been received by the proper officers to be counted in the manner hereinbefore directed, before issuing the certificates of election to the persons appearing to have a majority of the votes then received, and the said returns shall be subject to all such objections, as other returns are liable to when received in due time.

Section 1320. Duties of Secretary of the Commonwealth.—The Secretary of the Commonwealth shall cause to be printed a sufficient number of copies of this article, with such extracts from the other portions of this act, as shall be deemed important to accompany the same, and blank forms of poll-books, together with ballots, tally lists, returns and envelopes, as prescribed in this article, which, with the necessary postage stamps, to defray expenses and postage on returns, shall in sufficient time before any such election, be forwarded by said secretary, at the expense of the Commonwealth, by commissioners or otherwise, as shall be deemed most certain to insure delivery thereof, to the captain or commanding officer of each unit, or in case of detached voters, to the officer having charge of the post or hospital, who shall retain the same until the day of election, and then deliver the same to the judge elected as provided in this article. No election shall be invalidated by reason of the neglect or failure of the said secretary to cause the delivery of said poll-books, ballots and other supplies to the proper persons as aforesaid.

Section 1321. Appointment of Commissioners; Oath.—For the purpose of more effectually carrying out the provisions of this article, the Governor may appoint and commission, under the great seal of the Commonwealth, such number of commissioners, having the qualifications of an elector in this State, as he shall deem necessary, not exceeding one to each regiment or equivalent organization of Pennsylvania soldiers in the service of this State, or of the United States, and shall apportion the work among the commissioners and supply such vacancies as may occur in their number. Such commissioners, before they act, shall take and subscribe an oath or affirmation and cause the same to be filed with the Secretary of the Commonwealth, to the following effect:

"I, appointed commissioner, under Article XIII of the Election Law regulating elections by persons in actual military service, do solemnly swear (or affirm), that I will support the Constitution of the United States, and the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, and impartially, fully, and without reference to political preference or results, perform, to the best of my knowledge and ability, the duties imposed on me by the said act; and that I will studiously endeavor to prevent fraud, deceit and abuse, not only in the elections to be held under the same, but in the returns thereof."

Section 1322. Duties of the Commissioners.—Such commissioners shall deliver, as far as practicable, at least four of the copies of this article, and other extracts from this act and the rules and regulations issued hereunder, published as hereinbefore directed, and at least two blank forms of poll-books, tally lists and returns entrusted to them, together with a suitable number of ballots, and other supplies, to the commanding officers of every unit, or part thereof, of Pennsylvania soldiers in the actual military or naval service of the United States, or of this State; and make suitable arrangements and provision for the opening of polls under this article. The said commissioners, as soon as practicable after the day of election, shall call upon the judge of the election, and procure one poll-book, containing the returns of the election, and safely preserve and deliver the same, without delay, to the Secretary of the Commonwealth.

Section 1323. Compensation of Commissioners.—Said commissioners shall receive, in full compensation for their services under this article, ten cents (.10) per mile in going to and returning from their respective organizations, estimating the distance of travel by the usually traveled route; and the accounts therefor shall be audited and paid out of the State Treasury in the same manner as other claims are now audited and paid. All commanding and other officers shall be required to aid the commissioners herein appointed, and to give them all proper facilities to enable them to carry out the design and intention of this article.

Section 1324. Informalities Not to Invalidate Elections.—No mere informality in the manner of carrying out or executing any of the provisions of this article, shall invalidate any election held under the same, or authorize the returns thereof to be rejected or set aside; nor shall any failure on the part of the commissioners to reach or visit any unit or organization, or the failure of any unit, or part thereof, to vote, invalidate any election which may be held under this article.

Section 1325. Powers of Election Officers.—The several officers authorized to conduct such election, shall have the like powers, and they, as well as other persons who may attend, vote, or offer to vote at such election, shall be subject to the like penalties and restrictions as are declared or provided in the case of elections by the citizens at their usual places of election; and all of the provisions of this act, so far as applicable and not inconsistent with the provisions of this article, nor supplied thereby, shall apply to all elections held under this article.

Section 1326. No Compensation for Election Officers.—No compensation shall be allowed to any judge, inspector or clerk under this article.

Section 1327. Rights of Detached Electors.—When any of the electors mentioned in section 1301, less than ten (10) in number, shall be members of companies of another state or territory or for any sufficient and legal cause shall be separated from their proper unit or shall be in a hospital, navy yard, vessel or on recruiting, provost, or any other duty, whether within or without this State, under such circumstances as shall render it probable that they will be unable to rejoin their proper unit or to be present at their proper place of election on or before the day of any election, said electors shall have the right to vote in the following manner.

Section 1328. Ballots and Envelopes for Detached Electors.—The Secretary of the Commonwealth shall prepare and distribute to the said detached electors through the commissioners provided for by this article or in such manner as he may think proper, additional official ballots to be known as detached soldier's ballots. Such ballots shall be prepared and printed in the same form as the ballots provided for by section 1308 of this act, but shall have in addition printed thereon the words "Detached Soldier's Ballot." The Secretary of the Commonwealth shall also provide and distribute as aforesaid, three envelopes for each detached soldier's ballot of such size and shape that will permit the placing of one within the other. On the first shall be printed only the words "Detached Soldier's Ballot."

On the second shall be printed the affidavit of the detached elector, together with the jurat of the officer in whose presence the ballot is marked and before whom the affidavit is made, such affidavit and jurat to be in form prescribed by the Secretary of the Commonwealth. On the third shall be placed the name and address of the county board of elections of the proper county.

Section 1329. Voting by Detached Electors.—Any such detached elector may make application prior to the day of any election to one of the commissioners appointed under the provisions of this article or to the Secretary of the Commonwealth for a "Detached Soldier's Ballot." At any time after receiving such detached soldier's ballot, but on or before the day of the election, such elector may appear before any commissioned officer of the military or naval forces, either within or without the Commonwealth, and mark such ballot under the scrutiny of such officer in the following manner. The voter shall first display the ballot to such officer as evidence that the same is unmarked, and shall then proceed to mark the ballot in the presence of such officer, but in such manner that such officer is unable to see how the same is marked, and then fold the ballot, enclose and securely seal the same in the envelope on which is printed "Detached Soldier's Ballot." This envelope shall then be placed in the one on which is printed the affidavit of the elector and the jurat of the officer before whom the elector appears, and such envelope sealed in like manner by the elector. The elector shall then make out, subscribe and swear to the affidavit printed on the face of such envelope and the jurat shall be subscribed by the officer before whom the affidavit was taken. Such ballot and envelope shall then be securely sealed in the third envelope which the elector shall send by registered mail to the county board of elections of the proper county.

Section 1330. Receipt and Counting of Detached Soldiers' Ballots.—The county board of elections upon receipt of such registered letter shall safely keep the same in their office until they meet to canvass the vote of such election under the provisions of this act, at which time they shall open such registered letter and after examining the affidavit and jurat, shall compare the signature of such absent voter with his signature upon any register or other record in their possession. If the county board is satisfied that the signatures correspond and that the affidavit and jurat are sufficient, they shall announce the name of the elector and shall give any person present an opportunity to challenge the same in like manner and for the same causes as such elector could have been challenged had he presented himself in his own district to cast his vote. If there are no challenges, they shall open the second envelope in such manner as not to destroy the affidavit and jurat printed thereon, which envelope shall be kept in their office for a period of one year thereafter. All envelopes on which are printed the words "Detached Soldier's Ballot" and containing the ballots, shall be put into one depository at one time and said depository well shaken, and the envelopes containing the ballots mixed before any ballot is taken therefrom. The county board shall then break the seals of such envelopes and record the said ballots in the same manner as district election officers are required to record votes under the provisions of this act. In like manner all detached soldier's ballots received, prior to completion of the computation of the returns of the county, shall be counted and recorded and upon the completion of the computation of the returns of the county the votes cast upon the detached soldier's ballots shall then be added to the votes cast within the county, city, borough, township, ward or election district, as designated on each ballot. Detached soldier's ballots shall be safely kept by the county board of elections for a period of one year.

List of applicants for ballots for use by electors in military service to be posted.

Each county board of elections shall print and post in a conspicuous public place at its office a list, setting forth the name, present location, the local voting district or ward of every elector to whom a military ballot has been sent. This list shall be posted at least ten (10) days before the primary or election involved and shall also set forth the total number of military ballots prepared by the county board of elections. Copies of such list shall be furnished upon request to the county chairman of each political party and political body.

Manner of marking and handling ballot by person in military service.

Section 1306. Voting by Electors in Actual Military Service.—Any such elector may make application within the time prescribed by section one thousand three hundred and four to the county boards of elections for a "Military Ballot". At any time after receiving such military ballot, but on or before the day of the election, such elector in actual military service may appear before any commissioned officer of the military or naval forces, either within or without the Commonwealth, or before any officer of this or* any other state or territory of the United States authorized to administer oaths, and mark such ballot under the scrutiny of such officer in the following manner. The voter shall first display the ballot to such officer as evidence that the same is unmarked, and shall then proceed to mark the ballot in the presence of such officer, but in such manner that such officer is unable to see how the same is marked, and then fold the ballot, enclose and securely seal the same in the envelope on which is printed, stamped or endorsed "Military Ballot". This envelope shall then be placed in the one on which is printed the affidavit of the elector and the jurat of the officer before whom the elector appears, and such envelope sealed in like manner by the elector. The elector shall then make out, subscribe and swear to the affidavit printed on the face of such envelope, and the jurat shall be subscribed by the officer before whom the affidavit was taken. Such ballot and envelope shall then be securely sealed in the third envelope which the elector shall send by mail to the county board of elections of the proper county with postage prepaid.

Receipt and counting of military ballots by county boards.

Section 1307. Receipt and Counting of Military Ballots.—The county board of elections upon receipt of such third envelope shall safely keep the same in their office until they meet to canvass the vote of such election under the provisions of this act.

At such time the members of the county board of elections may in person dispose of military ballots in the manner hereinafter set forth, or they may designate a sufficient number of clerks to perform such duties. When it is determined that clerks shall be appointed, the total number shall in every case be in multiples of three; each member of the county board of elections shall appoint an equal number thereof.

Watchers appointed in the manner prescribed by, and subject to the restrictions imposed by section four hundred and seventeen of this act, in so far as applicable, shall be permitted to be present whenever any of the envelopes containing military ballots are opened and whenever any such ballots are counted and recorded.*

Watchers.

In disposing of military ballots the county board of elections, or the clerks designated as aforesaid, shall first examine the third envelope and set aside unopened all such envelopes which bear a postmark later than the date of the particular election day involved. The envelopes thus set aside shall be retained for a period of one year and then destroyed unopened.

Disposal of ballots and envelopes.

They shall then open the third envelopes not thus set aside, and after examining the affidavit and jurat, shall compare the signature of such absent voter with his signature upon any register or other record in their possession. If the county board is satisfied that the signatures correspond, that the affidavit and jurat are sufficient and that the voter has been duly registered as provided by law, they shall announce the name of the elector and shall give any person present an opportunity to challenge the same in like manner and for the same causes as such elector could have been challenged had he presented himself in his own district to cast his vote. If there are no challenges, they shall open the second envelope in such manner as not to destroy the affidavit and jurat printed thereon, which envelope shall be kept in their office for a period of one year thereafter. All envelopes on which are printed, stamped or endorsed the words "Military Ballot", and containing the ballots, shall be put into one depository at one time and said depository well shaken, and the envelopes containing the ballots mixed before any ballot is taken therefrom. The county board shall then break the seals of such envelopes and record the said ballots in the same manner as district election officers are required to record votes under the provisions of this act. In like manner all military ballots received prior to completion of the computation of the returns of the county shall be counted and recorded, and, upon completion of the computation of the returns of the county, the votes cast upon the military ballots shall then be added to the votes cast within the county, city, borough, incorporated town, township, ward or election district as designated on each ballot. Military ballots shall be safely kept by the county board of elections for a period of one year.

In cases where there is not time, in the opinion of the county boards of election, to print on said ballots the names of the various candidates for district, county and local offices, the ballots shall contain blank spaces only under the titles of such offices in which electors may insert the names of the candidates for whom they desire to vote, and in such cases the county boards of election shall furnish to electors lists containing the names of all the candidates who have been regularly nominated under the provisions of this act, for the use of such electors in preparing their ballots.

All envelopes on which are printed, stamped or endorsed the words "Official Military Ballot" shall be placed in one or more depositories at one time and said depository or depositories well shaken, and the envelopes mixed before any envelope is taken therefrom. ARTICLE XIII

Section 1301. Qualified Electors in Actual Military Service.—Any qualified elector in actual military service may vote under the provisions of this act in any election held in this Commonwealth, regardless of whether at the time of voting he is present in the election district of his residence, or is within or without this Commonwealth, and regardless of whether he is registered or enrolled.

Section 1302. Applications for Official Military Ballots.—(a) Any qualified elector in actual military service may apply at any time before any election for an official military ballot on Form USWBC Form No. 1 or any other form supplied by the Federal Government, or by post card, letter or other writing, addressed to the Secretary of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania or the county board of election of the county in which his voting residence is located.

(b) The application shall contain the following information: Residence at the time of entrance into actual military service, length of time a citizen, length of residence in Pennsylvania, date of birth, length of time a resident of voting district, voting district, party choice in case of primary, name, rank or grade, military address, branch of service and serial number. When such application is received by the Secretary of the Commonwealth it shall be forwarded to the proper county board of election.

(c) The application for a military ballot in any election may be made or information supplied over the signature of any person who is familiar with the voting qualifications of the military elector, as required in the preceding subsection.

(d) The various county boards of election, upon receipt of any application, shall ascertain from the information on such application, district register or from any other source that such applicant possessed all the qualifications of a qualified elector other than being registered or enrolled.

Section 1303. Official Military Ballots.—(a) Ballots for use by such military electors under the provisions of this act shall be prepared sufficiently in advance by the county boards of election and shall be distributed by such boards as hereinafter provided. Such ballots shall be marked "Official Military Ballot" but shall not be numbered and shall otherwise be in substantially the form for ballots required by article ten of this act, which form shall be determined and prescribed by the Secretary of the Commonwealth.

(b) In cases where there is not time, in the opinion of the county boards of election, to print on said ballots the names of the various candidates for district, county and local offices, the ballots shall contain blank spaces only under the titles of such offices in which electors may insert the names of the candidates for whom they desire to vote, and in such cases the county boards of election shall furnish to electors lists containing the names of all the candidates who have been regularly nominated under the provisions of this act, for the use of such electors in preparing their ballots.

Section 1304. Envelopes for Official Military Ballots.—The county boards of election shall provide two additional envelopes for each official military ballot of such size and shape as shall be prescribed by the Secretary of the Commonwealth, in order to permit the placing of one within the other and both within the mailing envelope. On the smaller of the two envelopes to be enclosed in the mailing envelope shall be printed, stamped or endorsed the words "Official Military Ballot," and nothing else. On the larger of the two envelopes, to be enclosed within the mailing envelope, shall be printed the affidavit of the elector, together with the jurat of the person in whose presence the ballot is marked and before whom the affidavit is made, and the name and address of the county board of election of the proper county. Said affidavit, jurat and envelope shall be in the form prescribed by the Secretary of the Commonwealth and shall contain among other things a statement of elector's qualifications. The mailing envelope addressed to the elector shall contain the two envelopes, the official military ballot, lists of candidates when authorized by Section 1303 of this act, the uniform instructions in form and substance as prescribed by the Secretary of the Commonwealth and nothing else.

Section 1305. Duties of County Boards.—(a) The county boards of election shall at least twenty-five days prior to the election deliver or mail official military ballots to all electors whose names and addresses have been ascertained; as additional names and addresses of electors are ascertained, the board shall deliver or mail official military ballots to such additional electors within forty-eight hours after ascertaining their names and addresses.

(b) Each county board of election shall post in a conspicuous public place at its office a master list, arranged alphabetically by election districts, setting forth the name, residence and local voting district or ward of every elector to whom an official military ballot has been sent. This posted list shall not contain the elector's military address or military organization. This list shall be known as the "Military File" and shall be posted at least five days before the election day involved, and shall also set forth the total number of such ballots prepared for use in such election. Copies of such military files shall be furnished upon request to the county chairman of each political party and political body, and shall also be furnished to registration commissions.

Section 1306. Voting by Electors in Actual Military Service.—At any time after receiving an official military ballot, but on or before the day of the election, the elector, for the purpose of voting, may appear before any person of this or any other state or territory of the United States authorized to administer oaths by Federal, State or military laws. The elector shall first display the ballot to such person as evidence that the same is unmarked, and then shall proceed to mark the ballot with pencil, crayon, indelible pencil or ink, in the presence of such person, but in such manner that the person administering the oath is unable to see how the same is marked, and then fold the ballot, enclose and securely seal the same in the envelope on which is printed, stamped or endorsed "Official Military Ballot." This envelope shall then be placed in the second one, on which is printed the affidavit of the elector, the jurat of the person before whom the elector appears, and the address of the elector's county board of election. The elector shall then fill out, subscribe and swear to the affidavit printed on such envelope, and the jurat shall be subscribed and dated by the person before whom the affidavit was taken. Such envelope shall then be securely sealed and the elector shall send same by mail to said county board of election.

Section 1307. Military Electors Voting in Districts of Residence.—(a) Whenever any qualified elector in actual military service is present in his voting district of residence on any primary, municipal or general election day and has not already voted in such election, he may apply to his district election board for an official ballot and vote it in such election.

(b) Each such application shall be in the form and shall contain the information required by this act together with a statement by the applicant that he has not already voted in the election. All such applications shall be transmitted to the county board of election immediately upon the closing of the polls.

(c) Upon receiving an official ballot and envelopes therefor, he shall, in secret, in the polling place vote the ballot and prepare it for execution of the affidavit and jurat as prescribed by this act. The affidavit shall be executed before the judge or either inspector of election, and the jurat subscribed by the person before whom the affidavit is taken. The military elector shall then securely seal the second envelope and hand it to the judge of election. The judge of election shall place all such envelopes in a container marked "Official Military Ballots" which shall be sealed immediately upon the closing of the polls and transmitted to the county board of election.

(d) Each district election board shall prepare a separate list of the names of all such voters, which shall be attached to the lists of voters required by the act to which this is an amendment.

(e) Each county board of election shall prepare and deliver to each district election board on such election days an adequate supply of official ballots, envelopes and other supplies as required by this act.

(f) Each county board of election, before the day fixed by this act for the canvassing of official ballots, shall post, attached to the "Military File", an alphabetically arranged list setting forth the name, residence, the local voting district and ward of every military elector voting under the provisions of this section. The list shall not contain the elector's military address or military organization. Copies of such list may be furnished as in the case of copies of the military file.

Section 1308. Canvassing of Official Military Ballots.—(a) The county boards of election, upon receipt of official military ballots in such envelopes, shall safely keep the same until they meet to canvass official military ballots, which canvass shall begin immediately following the official civilian canvass for all primary elections. After the November election, the canvass of official military ballots shall begin at ten o'clock A. M., Eastern Standard Time, on the second Friday following the election. No such ballots shall be counted which are received in their offices later than ten o'clock A. M., Eastern Standard Time, of the second Friday following the primary election or the November election. At such time the members of the return boards or the county boards of election shall in person dispose of official military ballots in the manner hereinafter set forth. The county boards of election may designate a sufficient number of clerks to perform such duties. When it is determined that clerks shall be appointed, the total number shall in every case be in multiples of three, and each member of a county board of election shall appoint an equal number thereof.

(b) Each candidate for nomination or election shall be entitled to appoint one watcher and each political party or body which has nominated candidates shall be entitled to appoint three watchers. Watchers shall be permitted to be present when the envelopes containing official military ballots are opened and when such ballots are counted and recorded.

(c) In disposing of an official military ballot the county return board or the county board of election shall examine the affidavit and jurat and if the jurat bears a date later than the date of the election, the envelope shall be set aside unopened.

(d) The board shall then further examine the affidavit and jurat of each envelope not so set aside and shall compare the information thereon with that contained in the military file. If the board is satisfied that the affidavit and jurat are sufficient and that the elector has qualified, and the board has utilized the information contained in the military file to verify his right to vote, the board shall announce the name of the elector and shall give any person present an opportunity to challenge in like manner and for the same cause, except failure to register or enroll, as the elector could have been challenged had he presented himself in his own district to vote other than by official military ballot. If no challenges are sustained, the board shall open the envelope in such manner as not to destroy the affidavit and jurat printed thereon. All envelopes on which are printed, stamped or endorsed the words "Official Military Ballot" shall be placed in one or more depositories at one time and said depository or depositories well shaken and the envelopes mixed before any envelope is taken therefrom. The board shall then break the seals of such envelopes, remove the ballots and record the votes in the same manner as district election officers are required to record votes. Upon completion of the computation of the returns of the county, the votes cast upon the official military ballots shall be added to the other votes cast within the county.

Section 1309. Public Records.—All official military ballots, military files, applications for such ballots and envelopes on which the jurats and affidavits appear, and all information and lists are hereby designated and declared to be public records and shall be safely kept for a period of two years, except that no information shall be made public which is expressly forbidden by the War Department because of military security.

Subsection (a), section 1223 of
act, amended
January 8, 1960,
P. L. 2142,

Section 1223. What Ballots Shall Be Counted; Manner of Counting; Defective Ballots.—(a) No ballot which is so marked as to be capable of identification shall be counted. Any ballot that is marked in blue, black or blue-black ink, in fountain pen or ball point pen, or black lead pencil or indelible pencil, shall be valid and counted: Provided, That all markings on the ballot are made by the same pen or pencil [and that all markings on the ballot are the same type of marking either a cross (X) or check (✓)]. Any ballot marked by any other mark than an (X) or check (✓) in the spaces provided for that purpose shall be void and not counted: Provided, however, That no vote recorded thereon shall be declared void because a cross (X) or check (✓) mark thereon is irregular in form. Any erasure, mutilation or defective marking of the straight party column at November elections shall render the entire ballot void, unless the voter has properly indicated his choice for candidates in any office block, in which case the vote or votes for such candidates only shall be counted. Any erasure or mutilation in the vote in any office block shall render void the vote for any candidates in said block, but shall not invalidate the votes cast on the remainder of the ballot, if otherwise properly marked. Any ballot indicating a vote for any person whose name is not printed on the ballot, by writing, stamping or sticker, shall be counted as a vote for such person, if placed in the proper space or spaces provided for that purpose, whether or not an (X) or check (✓) is placed after the name of such person: Provided, however, That if such writing, stamping or sticker is placed over the name of a candidate printed on the ballot, it shall render the entire vote in said office block void. If an elector shall mark his ballot for more persons for any office than there are candidates to be voted for for such office, or if, for any reason, it may be impossible to determine his choice for any office, his ballot shall not be counted for such office, but the ballot shall be counted for all offices for which it is properly marked. Ballots not marked, or improperly or defectively marked, so that the whole ballot is void, shall be set aside and shall be preserved with the other ballots.

Applications for absentee ballots unless otherwise specified shall be received in the office of the county board of elections not earlier than fifty (50) days before the primary or election and not later than five o'clock Act amended by adding three new sections 1802.1, 1802.2, and 1802.3.

P. M. of the first Tuesday prior to the day of any primary or election: Provided, however, That in the event any elector otherwise qualified who is so physically disabled or ill on or before the first Tuesday prior to any primary or election that he is unable to file his application or who becomes physically disabled or ill after the first Tuesday prior to any primary or election and is unable to appear at his polling place or any elector otherwise qualified who because of the conduct of his business, duties or occupation will necessarily be absent from the State or county of his residence on the day of the primary or election, which fact was not and could not reasonably be known to said elector on or before the first Tuesday prior to any primary or election, shall be entitled to an absentee ballot at any time prior to five o'clock P. M. on the day preceding any primary or election upon execution of an Emergency Application in such form prescribed by the Secretary of the Commonwealth.

In the case of an elector who is necessarily absent because of the conduct of his business, duties or occupation under the unforeseen circumstances specified in this subsection, such Emergency Application shall contain a supporting affidavit from such elector stating that because of the conduct of his business, duties or occupation said elector will necessarily be absent from the State or county of his residence on the day of the primary or election which fact was not and could not reasonably be known to said elector on or before the first Tuesday prior to the primary or election.

Section 1302.2. Approval of Application for Absentee Ballot.—

(a) The county board of elections, upon receipt of any application filed by a qualified elector not required to be registered under preceding section 1301, shall ascertain from the information on such application, district register or from any other source that such applicant possesses all the qualifications of a qualified elector other than being registered or enrolled. If the board is satisfied that the applicant is qualified to receive an official absentee ballot, the application shall be marked approved. When so approved, the county board of elections shall cause the applicant's name and residence (and at a primary, the party enrollment) to be inserted in the Military, Veterans and Emergency Civilians Absentee Voters File as provided in section 1302.3, subsection (b): Providing, however, That no application of any qualified elector in military service shall be rejected for failure to include on his application any information if such information may be ascertained within a reasonable time by the county board of elections.

(b) The county board of elections, upon receipt of any application filed by a qualified elector who is entitled, under the provisions of the Permanent Registration Law as now or hereinafter enacted by the General Assembly, to absentee registration prior to or concurrently with the time of voting as provided under preceding section 1301, shall ascertain from the information on such application or from any other source that such applicant possesses all the qualifications of a qualified elector. If the board is satisfied that the applicant is entitled, under the provisions of the Permanent Registration Law as now or hereinafter enacted by the General Assembly, to absentee registration prior to or concurrently with the time of voting and that the applicant is qualified to receive an official absentee ballot, the application shall be marked "approved." When so approved, the county board of elections shall cause the applicant's name and residence (and at a primary, the party enrollment) to be inserted in the Military, Veterans and Emergency Civilian Absentee Voters File as provided in section 1302.3 subsection (b).

(c) The county board of elections, upon receipt of any application of a qualified elector required to be registered under the provisions of preceding section 1301, shall determine the qualifications of such applicant by comparing the information set forth on such application with the information contained on the applicant's permanent registration card. If the board is satisfied that the applicant is qualified to receive an official absentee ballot, the application shall be marked "approved." When so approved, the registration commission shall cause the applicant's permanent registration card to be removed from the district register and the county board of elections shall cause same to be inserted in the Registered Absentee Voters File as provided in section 1302.3 subsection (a):

Provided, however, That the duties of the county boards of elections and the registration commissions with respect to the removal of the original registration card of any elector from the district register as set forth in section 1305 shall include only such applications as are received on or before the first Tuesday prior to the primary or election. In all cases where applications are received after the first Tuesday prior to the primary or election and before five o'clock P. M. on the day prior to the primary or election, the county board of elections shall determine the qualifications of such applicant by comparing the information set forth on such application with the information contained on the applicant's duplicate registration card on file in the General Register (also referred to as the Master File) in the office of the Registration Commission and shall cause the name and residence (and at primaries, the party enrollment) to be inserted in the Military, Veterans and Emergency Civilian Absentee Voters File as provided in section 1302.3, subsection (b). In addition, the county boards of elections shall, upon canvassing the official absentee ballots under section 1308, examine the voting check list of the election district of said elector's residence and satisfy itself that such elector did not cast any ballot other than the one properly issued to him under his absentee ballot application. In all cases where the examination of the county board of elections discloses that an elector did vote a ballot other than the one properly issued to him under the absentee ballot application, the county board of elections shall thereupon cancel said absentee ballot and said elector shall be subject to the penalties as hereinafter set forth.

Section 24. Sections 1307, 1308 and 1309 of the act, added March 6, 1951 (P. L. 3), are amended to read:

Section 1307. [Military] Certain Electors Voting in Districts of Residence.—

Sections 1307, 1308 and 1309 of act, added March 6, 1951, P. L. 3, amended.

(a) Whenever any qualified elector in actual military service is present in his voting district of residence on any primary, special, municipal or general election day and has not already voted in such election, he may apply [to his district election board] in person at the office of the county board of election of the county of his residence and he shall then and there execute his application for an official absentee ballot [and vote it in such election].

(b) Each such application shall be in the form and shall contain the information required by this act together with a statement by the applicant that he has not already voted in the election. [All such applications shall be transmitted to the county board of election immediately upon the closing of the polls.]

The county board of elections shall ascertain from the information on such application or from any other source that such applicant possesses all the qualifications of a qualified elector other than being registered or enrolled. If the board is satisfied that the applicant is qualified to receive an official absentee ballot, the application shall be marked "Approved." When so approved, the county board of elections shall cause the applicant's name and residence (and at primaries, the party enrollment) to be inserted in the "Military, Veterans and Emergency Civilian Absentee Voters File" as provided in section 1302.3 subsection (b).

(c) Upon receiving an official absentee ballot and envelopes therefor, he shall, in secret, in the [polling place] office of the county board of elections vote the ballot and [prepare it for execution of the affidavit and jurat] execute the declaration as prescribed by this act. [The affidavit shall be executed before the judge or either inspector of election, and the jurat subscribed by the person before whom the affidavit is taken.] The [military] elector shall then securely seal the second envelope and hand it to the [judge] chief clerk of the county board of election who shall securely keep same in accordance with the provisions of section 1308. [The judge of election shall place all such envelopes in a container marked "Official Military Ballots" which shall be sealed immediately upon the closing of the polls and transmitted to the county board of election.

(d) Each district election board shall prepare a separate list of the names of all such voters, which shall be attached to the lists of voters required by the act to which this is an amendment.

(e) Each county board of election shall prepare and deliver to each district election board on such election days an adequate supply of official ballots, envelopes and other supplies as required by this act.

(f) Each county board of election, before the day fixed by this act for the canvassing of official ballots, shall post, attached to the "Military File," an alphabetically arranged list setting forth the name, residence, the local voting district and ward of every military elector voting under the provisions of this section. The list shall not contain the elector's military address or military organization. Copies of such lists may be furnished as in the case of copies of the military file.]

Section 1308. Canvassing of Official [Military] Absentee Ballots.—

(a) The county boards of election, upon receipt of official [military] absentee ballots in such envelopes, shall safely keep the same in sealed or locked containers until they meet to canvass official [military] absentee ballots, which canvass shall begin immediately following the official civilian canvass for [all] the primary or [elections] November election or the second Friday following the primary or November election, whichever date is later. [After the November election, the canvass of official military ballots shall begin at ten o'clock A. M., Eastern Standard Time, on the second Friday following the election.] Said canvass to commence at ten o'clock A. M., Eastern Standard Time. No such ballots shall be counted which are received in their offices later than ten o'clock A. M., Eastern Standard Time, of the second Friday following the primary election or the November election. At such time the members of the return boards or the county boards of election shall in person dispose of official [military] absentee ballots in the manner hereinafter set forth. The county boards of election may designate a sufficient number of clerks to perform such duties. When it is determined that clerks shall be appointed, the total number shall in every case be in multiples of three, and each member of a county board of elections shall appoint an equal number thereof.

(b) Each candidate for nomination or election shall be entitled to appoint one watcher and each political party or body which has nominated candidates shall be entitled to appoint three watchers. Watchers shall be permitted to be present when the envelopes containing official [military] absentee ballots are opened and when such ballots are counted and recorded.

(c) In disposing of an official [military] absentee ballot the county return board or the county board of election shall examine the [affidavit and jurat] declaration and if the [jurat] same bears a date later than the date of [the] such primary or election, the envelope shall be set aside unopened.

(d) Whenever it shall appear by due proof that any absentee elector who has returned his ballot in accordance with the provisions of this act has died prior to the opening of the polls on the day of the primary or election, the ballot of such deceased elector shall be rejected by the canvassers but the counting of the ballot of an elector thus deceased shall not of itself invalidate any nomination or election.

(e) *The board shall then further examine the [affidavit and jurat of] declaration on each envelope not so set aside and shall compare the information thereon with that contained in the "Registered Absentee Voters File" and the "Military, Veterans and Emergency Civilians Absentee Voters File" [military file]. If the board is satisfied that the [affidavit and jurat are] declaration is sufficient and that the elector has qualified, and the board has utilized the information contained in the [military] "Registered Absentee Voters File" and the "Military, Veterans and Emergency Civilians Absentee Voters File" [file] to verify his right to vote, the board shall announce the name of the elector and shall give any [person] watcher present an opportunity to challenge in like manner and for the same cause, except the failure of qualified electors set forth in preceding section 1901, subsections (a) to (i), inclusive, to register or enroll, as the elector could have been challenged had he presented himself in his own district to vote other than by official [military] absentee ballot; Provided further, That any watcher may challenge any absentee elector upon the ground or grounds (1) that the absentee elector is not a qualified absentee elector as defined in this act; or (2) that the absentee elector was within the county of his residence on the day of the primary or election during the period the polls were open, except where he was in military service or except in the case where his ballot was obtained for the reason that he was unable to appear personally at the polling place because of illness or physical disability; or (3) that the absentee elector was able to appear personally at the polling place on the day of the primary or election during the period the polls were open in the case his ballot was obtained for the reason that he was unable to appear personally at the polling place because of illness or physical disability. Upon challenge of any absentee elector, the board shall mark "challenged" on the envelope together with the reason or reasons therefor, and the same shall be set aside unopened pending decision. [If no challenges are sustained] Thereupon, the board shall open the envelope of every unchallenged absentee elector in such manner as not to destroy the [affidavit and jurat printed] declaration executed thereon. All of such envelopes on which are printed, stamped or endorsed the words "Official [Military] Absentee Ballot" shall be placed in one or more depositories at one time and said depository or depositories well shaken and the envelopes mixed before any envelope is taken therefrom. The board shall then break the seals of such envelopes, remove the ballots and record the votes in the same manner as district election officers are required to record votes. With respect to the challenged ballots, the board shall fix a time and place for a formal hearing of all such challenges and notice shall be given where possible to all absentee electors thus challenged and to every attorney, watcher or candidate who made such challenge. The time for the hearing shall not be later than ten (10) days after the date of challenge. On the day fixed for said hearing, the board shall proceed without delay to hear said challenges and, in hearing the testimony, the board shall not be bound by technical rules of evidence. The testimony presented shall be stenographically recorded and made part of the record of the hearing. The decision of the board in upholding or dismissing any challenge may be reviewed by the court of common pleas of the county upon a petition filed by any person aggrieved by the decision of the county board. Such appeal shall be taken, within two (2) days after such decision shall have been made, whether reduced to writing or not, to the court of common pleas setting forth the objections to the board's decision and praying for an order reversing same. Pending the final determination of all appeals, the board shall suspend any action in canvassing and computing all challenged ballots irrespective of whether or not appeal was taken from the board's decision. Upon completion of the computation of the returns of the county, the votes cast upon the official [military] absentee ballots shall be added to the other votes cast within the county.

Section 1809. Public Records.—

All official [military] absentee ballots, [military] files, applications for such ballots and envelopes on which the executed [jurats and affidavits] declarations appear, and all information and lists are hereby designated and declared to be public records and shall be safely kept for a period of two years, except that no information concerning a military elector shall be made public which is expressly forbidden by the War Department because of military security.
