

News for Immediate Release

May 30, 2025

Pennsylvania Supreme Court to Hold Special Session in Luzerne County

HARRISBURG- In recognition of the 175th anniversary of the Luzerne County Bar Association, the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania today held a special oral argument session in the Luzerne County Courthouse.

Session audio is available via livestream. As a reminder, the use of audio for publication purposes is prohibited.

The list of arguments the Court is set to hear can be viewed here.

As the highest Court in the commonwealth and the oldest appellate court in the nation, the Pennsylvania Supreme Court is the definitive interpreter of Pennsylvania's Constitution and laws. The Court has full administrative authority over all aspects of Pennsylvania's judicial system and may also hear cases involving issues of immediate public importance arising in any court in the commonwealth.

To learn more about the work and role of the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania, as well as the rest of the state's judiciary, a detailed civics education toolkit is available here.

More information about the Pennsylvania Courts is also available on its website, Facebook, Twitter and Instagram.

###

Media Contact: Olivia Antonucci, 609-238-5182