ORDER IN QUESTION

Order of the Workers' Compensation Appeal Board:

[→In this section you must set forth the text (exact wording) of the order that you are appealing.]

SAMPLE

STATEMENT OF THE SCOPE AND STANDARD OF REVIEW

This Court's review is limited to determining whether constitutional rights were violated, whether an error of law was committed, or whether the findings of fact are supported by substantial evidence in the record.

STATEMENT OF THE QUESTION(S) INVOLVED

[→ In this section, state the issue or issues that you are asking the Court to address in your appeal. The issue below is an example of how to describe the issue you want the Court to address in this appeal. See Appellate Rule 2116 for more direction on this section of the Brief.]

- I. The issue is whether the Petitioner is eligible for benefits.

- II. [Issue #2 if you are asking the Court to address more than one issue.]

STATEMENT OF THE CASE

[→ In this section, provide a short statement of the relevant facts and history of your case. The full requirements of this section of the Brief can be found in Appellate Rule 2117.]

SUMMARY OF THE ARGUMENT

[→ This should be a one-page summary of your argument/position on appeal. See Appellate Rule 2118 for more direction on this section of the Brief.]

ARGUMENT

[→ In this section you must explain to the Court why the decision of the Workers' Compensation Appeal Board is wrong. You should include a separate argument for each question (issue) you listed in the Statement of Question(s) Involved section of the Brief. You should include the names and citations of court decisions or statutory sections that support your argument. Any cases or statutes that you include in this section of your Brief should also be listed in the Table of Citations that appears at the beginning of the Brief. See Appellate Rule 2119 for more direction on this section of the Brief.]

CONCLUSION

[→ Tell the Court what you want it to do. Examples: Affirm, Reverse or Modify the order of the Workers' Compensation Appeal Board (Board) that you have appealed. The statement below is a sample of a conclusion you might include in this section of your Brief.]

For the reasons explained above, the Board's decision should be reversed.

Respectfully submitted,
