

Violence Against Women Grant Program ADMINISTRATIVE OFFICE OF PENNSYLVANIA COURTS

Know More, Do More: Identifying and Responding to Stalking

Four-Part Webinar Training Series | 12 - 1:30 pm EST

Stalking is a prevalent, dangerous, and often misunderstood crime. This four-part webinar series explores the dynamics of stalking, focusing on the highly contextual nature of the crime by discussing common tactics used by perpetrators and the co-occurrence of stalking with other victimizations; the use of technology to stalk; risk assessment in stalking cases, as well as tools to plan for victim safety and hold offenders accountable in court; and an in-depth case study review, demonstrating how proper responses from the justice system can improve outcomes in the criminal legal system.

4/23/26 - Context is Key: Recognizing and Responding to Stalking

- Identify stalking behaviors and dynamics
- Recognize the intersection of stalking with other crimes
- Apply strategies for working with victims of stalking

4/24/26 - Stalking 2.0: The Use of Technology to Stalk

- Identify common technologies misused by perpetrators
- Apply strategies to document stalking and preserve technological evidence
- Consider tools for enhancing victim safety

5/7/26 - Risk Assessment in Stalking Cases and Safety Planning with Victims

- Recognize high risk times for stalking victims
- Assess danger in stalking cases
- Identify safety planning strategies for victims of stalking
- Consider tools for enhancing victim safety

5/8/26 - Solving the Puzzle: Investigating Stalking

- Document relevant evidence to build stalking cases
- Recognize high risk times for stalking victims
- Consider tools for enhancing victim safety
- Recognize and identify relevant evidence in stalking investigations

Expected to offer Continuing Judicial, Legal, and Interpreter Education Credits

Register at: <https://tinyurl.com/stalking2026>

Contact AOPC.STOPGrantProject@pacourts.us

The AOPC STOP program is supported by subgrant No. 47183 awarded by the Pennsylvania Commission on Crime and Delinquency (PCCD) to the Administrative Office of Pennsylvania Courts (AOPC). The opinions, findings, conclusions and recommendations expressed in these trainings are those of the author(s) and do not necessarily reflect the view of PCCD, the AOPC or the U.S. Department of Justice, Office on Violence Against Women.