ORDER

PER CURIAM

AND NOW, this 12th day of September, 2025, a Rule having been entered by this Court pursuant to Pa.R.D.E. 208(h), directing Respondent to show cause why the stayed suspension order should not be modified as set forth by the Designated Board Member, and no response having been filed, the Rule is made absolute, and the December 9, 2024 probation order for Matthew Paul Gieg shall remain in effect for two years from the date of this order, with the additional conditions that Respondent shall maintain participation in Soberlink for the duration of the probationary period and shall provide an update of his compliance with Soberlink on his quarterly written reports to the Board.

Respondent shall pay the additional expenses incurred as a result of the revocation proceedings pursuant to Rule 208(g). See Pa.R.D.E. 208(g).
