ORDER

PER CURIAM

AND NOW, this 8th day of December, 2025, the Petition for Allowance of Appeal is GRANTED, limited to the issue set forth below. Allocatur is DENIED as to all remaining issues. The issue granted, as stated by Petitioner, is:

Should the res gestae/complete-the-story exception to the ban on other acts evidence be narrowed or repudiated because, as applied in this case and as is acknowledged in national decisional law and commentary, that form of other act evidence inevitably leads to propensity proof and reasoning?
