ORDER

PER CURIAM

AND NOW, this 19th day of August, 2025, to the extent that the “Motion for Extension of Attorney Admission under Pa.B.A.R. 311(g)” and the “Motion for Extension of Attorney Admission under Pa.B.A.R. 311(g) Addendum” seek an extension on Attorney Ian S. Pulz’s temporary admission, see Pa.B.A.R. 311, relief is GRANTED, IN PART. To afford Attorney Pulz time to seek full admission to the Pennsylvania Bar, his Pa.B.A.R. 311 admission is extended to April 30, 2026. See generally In the Matter of de Laveaga, 5 WM 2025 (per curiam order filed Feb. 12, 2025) (denying a Pa.B.A.R. 311 extension request, with three Justices dissenting); see also id. (per curiam order filed Mar. 17, 2025) (granting reconsideration and extending the lawyer’s temporary admission to afford the lawyer time to seek full admission to the Pennsylvania Bar, with one Justice dissenting); see id. (Dougherty, J., joined by two Justices, concurring) (offering that Pa.B.A.R. 311 admittees “are now on fair notice” that their failure to demonstrate good cause for an extension, see Pa.B.A.R. 311(g), will no longer be excused based on this Court’s past practice); see also In the Matter of Hart, 2025 WL 1501819 (Pa. 2025).

Justice Wecht files a dissenting statement.
