ORDER

PER CURIAM

AND NOW, this 12th day of November, 2026, the "Motion for Extension of Time and for Leave to Proceed Pro Se" is GRANTED to the extent it seeks a serial reinstatement of Petitioner's allocatur rights.

In consideration of the "Motion for Extension of Time and for Leave to Proceed Pro Se" and Attorney Meagan F. Temple's "Motion to Withdraw as Counsel," this matter is REMANDED for the Court of Common Pleas of Allegheny County to determine whether to permit Attorney Temple to withdraw as counsel. See Pa.R.Crim.P. 120 (cautioning that counsel for a criminal defendant may withdraw only upon leave of court); see also id., Comment (in adjudicating a motion to withdraw, the court is to consider various factors, including whether "there is a written contractual agreement between counsel and the defendant terminating representation at a specified stage in the proceedings"). In the event the court permits Attorney Temple to withdraw, it is to adjudicate related questions, including whether to allow Petitioner to proceed pro se on allocatur review.

The Court of Common Pleas of Allegheny County is DIRECTED to enter its order on remand within 90 days and to promptly inform this Court of its determination.
